435—10.3(17A) Applicability. This chapter applies only to waivers of those division rules that are within the exclusive rule-making authority of the division. This chapter shall not apply to rules that merely define the meaning of a statute, or other provisions of law or precedent, if the division does not possess statutory authority to bind a court, to any extent, with its definition.