

434—7.4(17A) Compliance with law. The division may not issue a waiver under this chapter unless (1) the legislature has delegated authority sufficient to justify the action; and (2) the waiver is consistent with statute and other provisions of law. No waiver may be granted under this chapter from any mandatory requirement imposed by statute.