

282—5.12 (272) Release to subject.

5.12(1) The subject of a confidential record may file a written request to review the subject's confidential records as provided in rule 282—5.6(272). However, the agency need not release the following records to the subject:

- a.* The identity of a person providing information to the agency when the information is authorized as confidential pursuant to Iowa Code subsection 22.7(18) or other provisions of law.
- b.* The work product of an attorney or otherwise privileged information.
- c.* Peace officers' investigative report, except as required by Iowa Code subsection 22.7(5).
- d.* Those otherwise authorized by law.

5.12(2) Where a record has multiple subjects with interests in the confidentiality of the record, the agency may take reasonable steps to protect confidential information relating to another subject.
