

286—10.3(17A) Applicability.

10.3(1) The commission may grant a waiver or variance from a rule adopted by the commission only if (1) the commission has jurisdiction over the rule; (2) no statute or rule otherwise controls the granting of a waiver or variance from the rule from which waiver or variance is requested; and (3) the requested waiver or variance is consistent with applicable statutes, constitutional provisions, or other provisions of law.

10.3(2) No waiver or variance may be granted from a requirement which is imposed by statute.
