

199—10.16(479) When a permit is required. A pipeline permit shall be required for any pipeline which will be operated at a pressure of over 150 pounds per square inch gage or which, regardless of operating pressure, is a transmission line as defined in ASME B31.8 or 49 CFR Part 192. Questions on whether a pipeline requires a permit are to be resolved by the board.