

281—62.6 (256,279) Successful progression for early readers. Each school district shall provide the following.

62.6(1) Intensive instructional services. A school district shall provide students who are identified as having a substantial deficiency in reading under subrule 62.4(2) with intensive instructional services and supports, free of charge, to remediate the identified areas of reading deficiency. The intensive instructional services are further described in subrule 62.6(2).

a. Intensive instructional services under this subrule shall include a minimum of 90 minutes daily of scientific research-based reading instruction, which shall be core instruction.

b. In addition to the instruction described in paragraph 62.6(1) “a,” a school district shall prescribe other strategies, which may include but are not limited to the following:

- (1) Small group instruction.
- (2) Reduced teacher-student ratios.
- (3) More frequent progress monitoring.
- (4) Tutoring or mentoring.
- (5) Extended school day, week, or year.
- (6) Summer reading programs.

62.6(2) Reading enhancement and acceleration development initiative. The intensive instructional services described in subrule 62.6(1) shall be provided to all students in kindergarten through grade three who are identified as having a substantial deficiency in reading, as determined pursuant to subrule 62.4(2). The services shall meet the following requirements:

a. A school district shall provide intensive instructional services during regular school hours, in addition to the regular reading instruction.

b. A school district shall provide a reading curriculum that meets the standards of subrule 62.6(3).

62.6(3) Reading curriculum for students with substantial deficiencies in reading. A curriculum that does not meet the standards of this subrule shall not be used to implement this chapter. To implement this subrule, a school district shall provide a curriculum that meets the following guidelines and specifications:

a. Assists students assessed as exhibiting a substantial deficiency in reading to develop the skills to read at grade level.

b. Provides skill development in phonemic awareness, phonics, fluency, vocabulary, and comprehension.

c. Is supported by scientifically based research in reading.

d. Is implemented by certified instructional staff with appropriate training and professional development. Such training and professional development shall meet the requirements of rule 281—83.6(284).

e. Is implemented by certified instructional staff with fidelity, which shall meet such standards for fidelity of implementation that the department may adopt.

f. Includes a scientifically based and reliable assessment, which shall meet the requirements of rule 281—62.1(256,279).

g. Provides initial and ongoing analysis of each student’s reading progress, which shall meet the requirements of rule 281—62.1(256,279), with notice provided to parents pursuant to subrule 62.6(4).

h. Is implemented during regular school hours.

i. Provides a curriculum in core academic subjects to assist the student in maintaining or meeting proficiency levels for the appropriate grade in all academic subjects.

62.6(4) Parent notice, involvement and support. At a minimum and in addition to other requirements of this chapter, school districts shall provide the following to all parents or guardians of students who have been identified as having a substantial deficiency in reading:

a. At regular intervals, a school district shall apprise the parent or guardian of academic and other progress being made by the student and give the parent or guardian other useful information.

b. In addition to required reading enhancement and acceleration strategies provided to students, a school district shall provide parents or guardians of students who are identified as having a substantial deficiency in reading under subrule 62.4(2) with a plan outlined in a parental contract, including participation in regular parent-guided home reading.

62.6(5) Report to the department. Each school district shall report to the department the specific intensive reading interventions and supports implemented by the school district pursuant to this chapter. The department shall annually prescribe the components of required or requested reports.
