

361—12.10(668A) Administrative costs. The costs of administering this fund, including any costs associated with the conduct of any contested case proceeding challenging the disbursement of money from the fund and costs for postage and copying, shall be billed to the fund after approval by the executive council.