

597—2.11(225B) Reimbursement. Members of the council, the technical assistance committee, and other council-formed committees and task forces shall be entitled to reimbursement of actual expenses incurred in the performance of their duties. Costs of converting meeting materials into braille or audiotape, sign language interpreters for members who are deaf, and personal aides for members with physical disabilities shall be considered an actual expense incurred in the performance of a member's duties.