

641—67.11(135) Provider training. For the purpose of quality assurance and consistency, the department shall make training and training materials available for health care providers who will be performing blood lead testing and for school officials, school health personnel, local childhood lead poisoning prevention programs, local child health centers, and local public health agencies.