

205—10.1(906) Release processing. Following the issuance of an order for parole or work release by the board, the inmate shall be processed for release pursuant to the rules and procedures of the department of corrections and the district department.