

361—11.7(450) Political subdivisions. A political subdivision of the state of Iowa is a geographic or territorial portion of the state in which local governmental functions are performed. An agency or instrumentality of a political subdivision is part of the political subdivision. 1976 Op. Att’y Gen. 823.