

201—1.1(904) Title I definitions.

“Department” means the department of corrections.

“Deputy director” means the administrator who is appointed by the director and is responsible for an operational division within the department of corrections. The five operational divisions are administration, eastern operations, western operations, offender services and prison industries.

“Director” means the director of the department of corrections.

“Plan of compliance” means a schedule of action to be followed in correcting statute or rule deficiencies cited by the department of corrections.

“Public official” means any officer of the federal government, any state or a political subdivision thereof, receiving a salary or per diem, if elected or appointed or whether serving full-time or part-time.