

321—4.1(231) Definitions. Words and phrases as used in this chapter are as defined in 321 IAC 1 unless the context indicates otherwise. The following definition also applies to this chapter:

“Unit of general purpose local government” means a political subdivision of the state whose authority is general and not limited to only one function or combination of related functions.