

265—18.3(17A,16) Applicability of chapter. The authority may grant a waiver from a rule only if the authority has jurisdiction over the rule and the requested waiver is consistent with applicable statutes, constitutional provisions, or other provisions of law. The authority may not waive requirements created or duties imposed by statute.