

781—14.9(12C) Sale or merger of a credit union. The responsibility of a credit union to secure public deposits by a letter of credit shall not be altered by any merger, takeover or acquisition, except to the extent that such duty is assumed by the successor entity. A credit union shall immediately notify the public unit, in writing, of its merger, takeover or acquisition by a successor entity.