

193E—9.3(543B) Examination fee. The examination fee is paid directly to the testing service at the prevailing rate established by contract between the commission and the testing service.