A BILL FOR

An Act to repeal section two hundred thirty-one point eight (231.8), Code 1946, providing for the appointment and compensation of probation officers in the Juvenile Court and to enact a substitute therefor.

Be It Enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Iowa:

1 Section 1. Section two hundred thirty-one point eight
2 (231.8), Code 1946, is hereby repealed and the following is 3 enacted in lieu thereof:

4 Probation Officers—Salaries. The judge designated
5 as juvenile judge in each county, or where there is more 6 than one judge designated such judges acting jointly, shall 7 appoint probation officers and shall fix their compensation
8 as hereinafter provided. Women may be appointed as 9 probation officers and in counties where more than one 10 officer is appointed at least one of such officers shall 11 be a woman.

12 1. In any county having a population of less than 13 thirty thousand, one probation officer may be appointed 14 to serve either part or full time. Such appointee may be 15 paid eight dollars per day or one dollar per hour for 16 services actually rendered but shall receive not more than

17 twenty-five hundred dollars in salary in any one year.

18 2. In counties wherein there is an educational 19 institution under the control of the State Board of 20 Education, with a student enrollment of at least six 21 thousand, and in counties having a population of more
22 than thirty thousand and less than fifty thousand, a 23 chief probation officer may be appointed at a salary not 24 to exceed three thousand dollars per year and such deputy 25 probation officers may be appointed as may be necessary to 26 carry out the work of the court, but not more than four 27 thousand dollars in salaries shall be paid such deputies 28 in any one year and no deputy shall receive more than two 29 thousand dollars in salary in any one year.

30 3. In counties having a population of more than fifty 31 thousand and less than one hundred twenty-five thousand, a 32 chief probation officer may be appointed at a salary not to 33 exceed thirty-six hundred dollars per year and such deputy 34 probation officers may be appointed as may be necessary to 35 carry out the work of the court, but not more than twelve 36 thousand dollars in salaries shall be paid such deputies in 37 any one year and no deputy shall receive more than 38 twenty-five hundred dollars in salary in any one year.

39 4. In counties having a population in excess of one 40 hundred twenty-five thousand, a chief probation officer may 41 be appointed at a salary not to exceed forty-two hundred 42 dollars per year and such deputy probation officers may be

43 appointed as may be necessary to carry out the work of the 44 court, but not more than twenty-six thousand dollars in 45 salaries shall be paid such deputies in any one year and no
46 deputy shall receive more than three thousand dollars in 47 salary in any one year.
