HF 118

1 Section 1. DOT INTERSTATE HIGHWAY COORDINATOR. The 2 director of transportation shall, from among the full-time
3 equivalent positions authorized for the state department of 4 transportation as of the effective date of this Act, designate
5 an interstate highway coordinator. The interstate coordinator
6 shall be responsible for coordinating activities with the 7 states bordering Iowa to improve highway connections between 8 Iowa and the bordering states. The interstate coordinator's
9 duties shall include coordinating the completion of U.S.
10 highway 30 to connect with interstate highway 88.

11 EXPLANATION

12 This bill directs the director of transportation to 13 designate an interstate highway coordinator from among the 14 full-time equivalent positions authorized for the state
15 department of transportation. The coordinator shall be 16 responsible for coordinating activities with the states
17 bordering Iowa to improve highway connections between Iowa and 18 the bordering states. The coordinator's duties are to include 19 coordination with the state of Illinois regarding the 20 completion of U.S. highway 30 to connect with interstate 21 highway 88.
