HF 2337

1 Section 1. NEW SECTION. 321.63A CESSATION OF BUSINESS.
2 If a dealer, transporter, new motor vehicle wholesaler
3 licensed under chapter 322, or mobile home dealer licensed
4 under chapter 322B has an established place of business that 5 ceases to do business, the department, upon application by the 6 dealer, transporter, new motor vehicle wholesaler, or mobile
7 home dealer, shall issue refunds for unexpired multiyear
8 registration special plates held by the applicant for that 9 location. The refund shall be computed on the basis of the 10 number of unexpired months remaining in the registration year
11 or years at the time the applicant ceased doing business at 12 the location designated in the applicant's certificate of 13 registration.

14 EXPLANATION

15 This bill allows motor vehicle dealers, transporters, new 16 motor vehicle wholesalers licensed under Code chapter 322, or 17 mobile home dealers licensed under Code chapter 322B who have 18 obtained a separate certificate of registration and dealer's,
19 transporter's, new motor vehicle wholesaler's, or mobile home
20 dealer's special plates for a distinct business location to 21 receive a refund of the unexpired portion of the registration
22 fee for those plates if the dealer, transporter, new motor
23 vehicle wholesaler, or mobile home dealer ceases doing
24 business at the location for which the special plates were 25 issued.
