SF 88 BUSINESS & LABOR

1 Section 1. Section 729.4, subsection 1, Code 2005, is 2 amended to read as follows:

3 1. Every person in this state is entitled to the 4 opportunity for employment on equal terms with every other 5 person. A person or employer shall not discriminate in the 6 employment of individuals because of race, religion, color,
7 sex, national origin, or ancestry, and shall not discriminate
8 in compensation for work of comparable worth between jobs held 9 predominately by women and jobs held predominately by men.
10 "Comparable worth" means the value of work as measured by the 11 composite of the skill, effort, responsibility, and working 12 conditions normally required in the performance of work.
13 However, as to employment an individual must be qualified to 14 perform the services or work required.

15 EXPLANATION

16 This bill provides that a person or employer shall not 17 discriminate in providing compensation for work of comparable 18 worth between jobs predominately held by women and men. The 19 bill defines "comparable worth" as being the value of work as 20 measured by the skill, responsibility, and working conditions
21 involved in performing the work. A violation of this 22 provision constitutes a simple misdemeanor.
