SF 2327

1 Section 1. Section 804.29, Code 2005, is amended to read
2 as follows:

3 804.29 CONFIDENTIALITY.

4 All information filed with the court for the purpose of 5 securing a warrant for an arrest, including but not limited to 6 a citation and affidavits, shall be a confidential record
7 until such time as a peace officer has made the arrest and has 8 made the officer's return on the warrant. During the period
9 of time that information is confidential, it shall be sealed
10 by the court and the information contained therein shall not 11 be disseminated to any person other than a peace officer,
12 employee of a county attorney's office, magistrate, or another
13 court employee, in the course of official duties.

14 EXPLANATION

15 This bill relates to access to confidential information
16 used to secure an arrest warrant.

17 The bill permits an employee of the county attorney's 18 office to have access to confidential arrest warrant
19 information prior to the person being arrested. Current law
20 limits access to the confidential arrest warrant information 21 to a peace officer, magistrate, or other court employees in 22 the course of official duties.
