Absent or not voting:

Buxton, Coast, Craven, Crozier, Helming, Holbert, Johnston of Humboldt, Miller, Munro, Pitt, Purdy, Roberts, Rowles, Swenson, Taylor, Witthauer—16.

So the bill having received a constitutional majority was declared to have passed the House and the title was agreed to.

On motion of Griffin of Woodbury, Calendar No. 448, House File No. 551, a bill for an act to amend section 254-a20 of the supplement to the code, 1913, relative to the financial aid given to the widowed mother of dependent or neglected children, was taken up and considered.

The sifting committee proposed the following amendments:

Amend House File No. 551 as follows:

By striking out the words "of the" before the word "Supplement" in the first line following the enacting clause, and by striking out the words "of the" being the last words in the fifth line and the first word in the sixth line of said Bill, and by striking out the words "of the" before the word "supplement" in the ninth line of said Bill and by striking out the words "of the" before the word "supplement" in the eleventh line of said Bill.

Amendment adopted.

Mr. Griffin moved that the rules be suspended, the bill be considered engrossed and read a third time now, which motion prevailed, and the bill was read a third time.

On the question, "Shall the bill pass?"

The ayes were:

Anderson of Montgomery, Anderson of Greene, Anderson of Winnebago, Anderson of Davis, Bailey, Ball, Bauman, Becker, Bingham, Brady, Brammer, Bronson, Bruce, Clark, Coakley, Coast, Cochrane, Darrah, Durant, Eggleston, Elwood, Freeman, Garton, Gilbert, Gilmore, Grason, Gray, Greene, Griffin, Hale, Hall, Herman, Horehem, Ingwersen, Jamison, Jessen, Johnston of Lucas, Jones of Cerro Gordo, Jones of Dickinson, Kane, Kelso, Kepple, Kimberly, Klinker, Kopp, Lee, Lenoeker, Lueders, McDermid, McFarlane, McFerren, Mackie, Michael, Miller, Murray, Nicholson, Nordyke, Rayburn, Rees, Reese, Richards, Ring, Roberts, Rone, Sawyer, Schmedika, Shortess, Slaughter, Smith, Spotts, Steelsmith, Stokes, Stone, Sullivan, Swain, Swenson, Taylor, Thompson, Tucker, Turner, Wenstrand, Wilson of Cherokee, Wilson of Louisa, Wilson of Mahaska, Wilson of Mitchell, Witthauer—86.

So the bill having received a constitutional majority was declared to have passed the House and the title was agreed to.

Barry of Linn, from the committee on retrenchment and reform, submitted the following report and moved that it be printed in the journal.

Motion prevailed and the report was ordered printed in the journal.

TO THE THIRTY-SIXTH GENERAL ASSEMBLY.

After long, careful and painstaking investigation of the problems of state printing and binding, the committee reaches the conclusion that the chief source of loss and extravagance to the state is not in the price paid for printing and binding, but in the excessive quantity, in the lack of system in compiling and editing the reports and in the unnecessary duplication, particularly in the reports and documents issued by the various departments, bureaus, boards, commissions, etc. A remedy for this loss has been supplied in the passage of the committee's bill providing for a document editor whose duty it shall be to edit and condense and supervise the publication of all reports, documents, etc. This innovation is certain to very materially reduce the volume of many reports and lessen the aggregate quantity. It is anticipated that this one change will result in a saving to the state of $28,000.00 annually.

In the matter of rates paid for printing and binding, the committee made thorough and careful investigation, consulting various authorities, including Mr. J. Frank Higgins, the state expert printer of Illinois, the heads of some of the largest printing and binding plants in Iowa, and others, and also at various times heard Mr. J. M. Pierce, publisher of The Iowa Homestead, and Mr. Robert Henderson and J. W. Jameson, state printer and state binder, respectively.

Mr. Higgins testified before the committee that the contract system for state printing and binding had proven unsatisfactory in Illinois and that, including extras and special allowance granted under the contract system, the rates in Illinois are considerably above those paid by Iowa.

Mr. Pierce gave the committee some helpful suggestions and at the final hearing submitted a revision of the prices on the basis of which he stated that he was willing to enter into a contract to do all of the state printing and binding, if given a six-year contract on the expiration of the term of the present state printer and binder January 1, 1917, and which he estimated would effect a saving of $10,000.00 per year, or $20,000.00 for the period ending January 1, 1919, based on the present volume of business.

The committee, after having compiled information from various sources, also had prepared a proposed revision of the rates for printing and binding which it has now submitted in the form of a bill and which it referred to Mr. Paul, state expert accountant, with a request that he compile figures based on the business of the latest year available and showing the saving that would result from the adoption of the new schedule. Mr. Paul investigated and reported that the proposed rates would effect a saving of $17,799.00 for the period ending January 1, 1919. This as compared with Mr. Pierce's estimated saving of $20,000.00 for the same period, should the state be successful in awarding a contract on the basis of his figures at the expiration of the term of the present printer and binder, shows a difference of but $2,200.00 for the four-year period ending January 1, 1919, or an average of $550.00 per year. In view of the small difference that might result during that period and of the uncertain and unsatisfactory experience that other states have had with the contract system, and in view of the further fact that the present state printer and binder have agreed to accept the revised rates to become effective at once, conditional on their re-election, the committee deems it inadvisable at this time to make a change of system, but would recommend that the present state printer and binder be re-elected, that the new rate schedule be adopted, and that the matter be given still further consideration during the next biennial period with a view of working out a safe and fixed plan for state printing and binding. The adoption of the recommendations of the committee as to the revision of rates will, as set forth, effect a saving of $17,799.00 for the period ending January 1, 1919, and the anticipated saving to result from the decreased volume in consequence of the work of the document editor of $28,000.00 per year will make a probable saving of $129,799.00 for the period ending January 1, 1919, if the committee's recommendations are adopted.

Respectfully submitted,

J. H. ALLEN,

Chairman,

Retrenchment and Reform Committee.

BILLS SIGNED.

House resumed consideration of House File No. 637.

Ring of Linn in the chair.

Unanimous consent having been granted, Miller of Bremer withdrew the substitute bill proposed in the minority report from the further consideration of the House and offered the following amendment in lieu thereof:

I move to amend House File No. 637 by striking out all after the word "more:" in the 4th line thereof and substituting the following:

1. For composition on laws, journals, reports and all other printed matter, except blanks, thirty-five cents per thousand ems, and fifty cents per thousand for figure work when figures are arranged in columns, and three or more justifications are required, and seventy cents per thousand ems for rule and figure work. But plain indexes, such as those of the statutes of this state, shall be reckoned as ordinary composition;

2. For book press work, the compensation shall be one dollar and eighty-five cents for the first one thousand impressions of sixteen pages, and ninety cents per thousand for each additional one thousand impressions from the same form. If in finishing a job of press work it shall be necessary to print an eight-page form, the compensation shall be one dollar and twenty-five cents for the first thousand and seventy-five cents for each additional thousand impressions from said eight-page form, and if there shall not be one thousand impressions in any one book form the compensation shall be the same as for one thousand.

3. For printing blanks the rate of composition shall be the same as provided in sub-section 1. For press work on blanks the price shall be one dollar and fifteen cents for the first one hundred impressions, and ten cents per hundred for each additional one hundred impressions or fraction thereof, on sheets eleven by seventeen inches in size or larger, and seventy-five cents for the first hundred impressions and seven and one-half cents for each additional hundred impressions or fraction thereof for sheets smaller than eleven by seventeen inches in size. When both sides of a blank can be printed at once, or when it is practicable to print two or more blanks at once, only one impression shall be paid for. When the number to be printed is of sufficient quantity to justify, the Document Editor may order as many electrotypes as he may deem best, and these electrotypes and the original form shall be printed on one sheet, and charged for on the above scale of prices, each sheet to count as one impression, unless printed on both sides, when it will count as two impressions. On such work the state printer shall be paid the actual cost of electrotypes so ordered, and in addition shall be entitled to charge four cents per thousand for cutting and wrapping.

4. For printing twelve hundred copies or less of the docket for the supreme court, including press work and composition, the docket page to conform in size and form with the dockets of eighteen hundred ninety-six, one dollar and thirty-five cents for each printed page contained in a single volume thereof. For printing senate or house bills, five hundred or less, including composition and press work, one dollar and twenty-five cents for each printed page contained in a single bill, and for each additional one hundred, twenty cents for each form of four pages or less; provided that where type set for a bill in one house shall be used in printing the same bill for the other house, the number of copies ordered of said same bill shall be considered additional copies and paid for accordingly, and for reimposing the first form of four pages or less of said same bill the sum of fifty cents shall be allowed. For briefs to the supreme court, fifty copies or less, of size and form prescribed by the rules of the supreme court, fifty cents per printed page contained in a single volume. For letter heads, first thousand, one dollar and fifty cents, and sixty cents for each additional thousand or fraction thereof; for envelopes and plain labels, seventy-five cents for the first thousand and fifty cents for each additional thousand or fraction thereof; for postal cards, first thousand one dollar and fifty cents, and sixty cents for each additional thousand or fraction thereof, and when postal cards are printed on both sides, two press works shall be paid for.

The Document Editor may order envelopes printed at the mill at mill prices when the quantity ordered will justify.

SEC. 2. That section one hundred forty-one (141), supplement to the code, 1913, be and the same is hereby repealed and the following enacted in lieu thereof:

"The state binder shall be paid the following prices for all work done for the state in an acceptable manner as in this chapter provided:

1. For folding all documents not stitched, twenty-five cents for the first one hundred copies and five cents for each additional one hundred copies.

2. For folding, trimming and stitching documents not covered, not exceeding one sheet, allowing sixteen pages for a sheet, fifteen cents per hundred for sixteen pages or less and ten cents per one hundred for each additional sixteen pages or fraction thereof.

3. For folding, stitching, and binding in paper covers all messages, reports, documents, not exceeding one sheet, allowing sixteen pages for a sheet, forty cents per hundred copies of sixteen pages or less, and for each additional sheet of sixteen pages or less, ten cents per hundred copies, the cover not to be counted;

4. For folding, sewing, and binding in paper covers the journals of the two houses, twenty-one cents per copy;

5. For folding, sewing, and binding in muslin or cases, with gilt letters, the lettering and general style of the books to be the same as reports heretofore published, fourteen cents per copy for a volume of one hundred fifty pages or less; twenty cents per copy for a volume containing one hundred fifty pages, and not more than four hundred pages, and for each additional one hundred pages or fraction thereof, two and one-half cents; for folding, sewing, and binding agricultural and horticultural society reports in board covers with muslin backs, similar in style with the acts of the general assembly, eighteen cents per copy;

6. For folding, sewing, and binding in half-sheep, with gilt letters for title, the lettering and general style of the books to be the same as documents heretofore published, thirty-two cents per copy for each volume of four hundred pages or less, and two and one-half cents for each additional hundred pages or fraction thereof;

7. For folding, stitching and binding the acts and resolutions of each general assembly in boards, with muslin backs and paper sides, same as laws of eighteen hundred eighty-six, nine cents per copy;

8. For folding, sewing, and binding in law-sheep, same style as the reports of the supreme court, forty-seven cents per copy for each volume of five hundred pages or fraction thereof;

9. For ruling he shall be allowed the sum of one dollar per hour for time actually employed;

10. For folding, sewing, and binding the Iowa official register in cloth or cases regular document size, with gilt letters on the back thereof, the kind and quality of the cloth and the style of the lettering to be as directed by the secretary of state, thirteen cents per copy for a volume containing four hundred pages and not over six hundred pages, and for each additional one hundred pages or fraction thereof, one and one-half cent.

SEC. 3. This act being deemed of immediate importance shall take effect and be in force from and after its publication in The Register and Leader and the Des Moines News, newspapers published at Des Moines, Iowa.

On the question, "Shall the House concur?"

The ayes were:

Anderson of Montgomery, Anderson of Greene, Anderson of Winnebago, Bailey, Barry, Bauman, Becker, Bingham, Brady, Brammer, Bronson, Bruce, Buxton, Coakley, Coast, Doze, Durant, Eggleston, Elwood, Freeman, Garton, Gilbert, Gilmore, Grason, Gray, Greene, Hadley, Hale, Hall, Herman, Holbert, Horchem, Ingwersen, Jessen, Jones of Cerro Gordo, Jones of Dickinson, Kelso, Kepple, Klinker, Kopp, Lenocker, Lueders, McDermid, Mackie, Miller, Munro, Neff, Nicholson, Nordyke, Petersen, Rayburn, Rees, Reese, Richards, Ring, Rogers, Rone, Rowles, Sawyer, Shaeffer, Shortess, Spotts, Steelsmith, Stokes, Stone, Swain, Taylor, Thompson, Tucker, Turner, Wenstrand, Wigdahl, Wilson of Cherokee, Wilson of Louisa, Wilson of Mahaska, Wilson of Mitchell, Mr. Speaker—77.

The nays were:

None.

Absent or not voting:

Anderson of Davis, Ball, Clark, Cochrane, Craven, Crozier, Darrah, Griffin, Helmung, Jamison, Johnston of Humboldt, Johnston of Lucas, Kane, Kimberly, Lee, McFarlane, McFerren, Michael, Moore, Murray, Oldenburg, Pitt, Purdy, Roberts, Schmedika, Slaughter, Smith, Sullivan, Swenson, Wayman, Witthauer—31.

So the House concurred in the Senate amendments.

On motion of Gilbert of Marshall, Appropriations Calendar No. 34, Senate File No. 242, a bill for an act making special appropriations for the state university of Iowa, the Iowa state college of agriculture and mechanic arts, the Iowa state teachers college, and the college for the blind, with report of committee recommending passage, was taken up and considered.

Mr. Gilbert moved that the rules be suspended, the bill be read a third time now, which motion prevailed, and the bill was read a third time.

On the question, "Shall the bill pass?"

The ayes were:

Anderson of Montgomery, Anderson of Greene, Anderson of Winnebago, Anderson of Davis, Bailey, Ball, Barry, Bauman, Becker, Bingham, Brady, Brammer, Bronson, Bruce, Buxton, Coast, Craven, Crozier, Darrah, Doze, Durant, Eggleston, Elwood, Freeman, Garton, Gilbert, Gilmore, Grason, Gray, Greene, Hadley, Hale, Hall, Helming, Herman, Horchem, Ingwersen, Jessen, Jones of Cerro Gordo, Jones of Dickinson, Kane, Kelso, Kepple, Kimberly, Klinker, Kopp, Lenocker, Lueders, McFerren, Mackie, Michael, Munro, Murray, Neff, Nicholson, Nordyke, Rayburn, Rees, Reese, Richards, Ring, Rogers, Rone, Rowles, Schmedika, Shaeffer, Shortess, Slaughter, Smith, Spotts, Stokes, Stone, Swain, Taylor, Thompson, Tucker, Turner, Wenstrand, Wigdahl, Wilson of Cherokee, Wilson of Louisa, Wilson of Mahaska, Wilson of Mitchell, Mr. Speaker—84.

The nays were:

None.

Absent or not voting:

Clark, Coakley, Cochrane, Griffin, Holbert, Jamison, Johnston of Humboldt, Johnston of Lucas, Lee, McDerimid, McFarlane, Miller, Moore, Oldenburg, Petersen, Pitt, Purdy, Roberts, Sawyer, Steelsmith, Sullivan, Swenson, Wayman, Witthauer—24.

So the bill having received a constitutional majority was declared to have passed the House and the title was agreed to.

EXPLANATION OF VOTE.

MR. SPEAKER—I vote aye on Senate File No. 242, a bill making an appropriation for the State University of Iowa only for the reason that this appropriation supplants and therefore abolishes the millage tax heretofore levied for the support of the University. And while I believe the appropriation is at least one hundred thousand dollars more than it should be, I am left no other choice than to vote for this bill or to deny to the University the support to which it is legitimately entitled.

GEO. W. BALL.

LEAVE OF ABSENCE.

On request of Eggleston of Clarke leave of absence was granted Oldenburg of Lyon for the remainder of the day.

CONSIDERATION OF BILLS.

On motion of Anderson of Greene, Appropriations Calendar No. 35, Senate File No. 288, a bill for an act making annual appropriations to the State University, Iowa State College of Agriculture and Mechanic Arts, and Iowa State Teachers College, with report of committee recommending passage, was taken up and considered.

McFerren of Hamilton offered the following amendment:

I move to amend Senate File No. 288 by striking out from the 3rd and 4th lines of section 2 the words and figures "nine hundred forty thousand dollars ($940,000.00)" and substitute in lieu thereof "eight hundred thirty-four thousand five hundred dollars ($834,500.00)";

Also by striking from the 6th line of said section the figures "$505,000.00" and by substituting in lieu thereof the figures "$480,000.00";

Also by striking from the 7th line the figures "$20,000.00" and substituting in lieu thereof the figures "$16,000.00";

Also by striking from the 11th line of said section the words and figures "and engineering—$54,000.00" and substituting in lieu thereof "$44,000.00";

Also by striking from lines 18 and 19 the words and figures "and engineering and Trade School word—$9,500.00" and substituting in lieu thereof the figures "$8,500.00";

Also by striking from line 21 of said section the words and figures "engineering experiment station—$15,000.00";

Also by striking out from the 22d line the words and figures "good roads experimentation—$10,000.00";

Also by striking out the figures "$115,500.00" in line 23 of said section and substituting in lieu thereof the figures "$100,000.00";

Also by striking from line 25 of said section the words and figures "engineering extension and trade school—$25,000.00".

Jessen of Story moved the previous question as applied to the amendments on file and the main question.

Roberts of Ringgold seconded the motion.

Motion prevailed.

Roll call on the amendment offered by McFerren of Hamilton was demanded by McFerren of Hamilton and Rayburn of Poweshiek.

Jessen of Story invoked Rule 18.

On the question, "Shall the amendment be adopted?"

The ayes were:

Anderson of Davis, Bailey, Ball, Bauman, Bronson, Buxton, Clark, Coakley, Cochrane, Craven, Crozier, Doze, Eggleston, Freeman, Hall, Helming, Ingwersen, Jamison, Johnston of Lucas, Kane, Lenocker, McDermid, McFerren, Michael, Petersen, Pitt, Rayburn, Roberts, Rogers, Rowles, Schmedika, Shaeffer, Smith, Spotts, Steelsmith, Thompson, Wayman, Wilson of Mahaska, Witthauer—39.

The nays were:

Anderson of Montgomery, Anderson of Greene, Anderson of Winnebago, Barry, Becker, Bingham, Brady, Brammer, Eruce, Coast, Darrah, Durant, Elwood, Garton, Gilbert, Gilmore, Grason, Gray, Greene, Griffin, Hadley, Hale, Herman, Holbert, Horchem, Jessen, Jones of Cerro Gordo, Jones of Dickinson, Kelso, Kepple, Kimberly, Klinker, Kopp, Lee, Lueders, McFarlane, Mackie, Moore, Munro, Murray, Nicholson, Nordyke, Rees, Reese, Ring, Rone, Sawyer, Shortess, Slaughter, Stokes, Stone, Sullivan, Swain, Taylor, Tucker, Turner, Wenstrand, Wigdahl, Wilson of Cherokee, Wilson of Louisa, Wilson of Mitchell, Mr. Speaker—62.

Absent or not voting:

Johnston of Humboldt, Miller, Neff, Oldenburg, Purdy, Richards, Swenson—7.

Amendment lost.

The following amendment filed by Bauman of Van Buren was read:

Amend Senate File No. 288 by striking out the word "hereafter" following the word "annually" wherever found in said bill and inserting in lieu thereof the words "for the biennial period".

Also by striking out the word "permanent" wherever it precedes the word "annual" in said bill.

Also by striking out the period after the word "thereafter" at the end of Section 1 and adding the following "for the biennial period".

Amendment lost.

Mr. Anderson moved that the rules be suspended, the bill be read a third time now, which motion prevailed, and the bill was read a third time.

Jessen of Story invoked Rule 18.

On the question, "Shall the bill pass?"

The ayes were:

Anderson of Montgomery, Anderson of Greene, Anderson of Winnebago, Anderson of Davis, Bailey, Ball, Barry, Bauman, Becker, Bingham, Brady, Brammer, Bruce, Buxton, Coast, Cochran, Craven, Crozier, Darrah, Doze, Durant, Eggleston, Elwood, Freeman, Garton, Gilbert, Gilmore, Grason, Gray, Greene, Griffin, Hadley, Hale, Hall, Helming, Herman, Holbert, Horchem, Ingwersen, Jamison, Jessen, Jones of Cerro Gordo, Jones of Dickinson, Kane, Kelso, Kepple, Kimberly, Klinker, Kopp, Lee, Lueders, McDermid, McFarlane, McFerren, Mackie, Michael, Miller, Moore, Munro, Murray, Nicholson, Nordyke, Reese, Richards, Ring, Rogers, Rone, Rowles, Sawyer, Shortess, Slaughter, Smith, Spotts, Steelsmith, Stokes, Stone, Sullivan, Swain, Taylor, Thompson, Tucker, Turner, Wayman, Wenstrand, Wigdahl, Wilson of Cherokee, Wilson of Louisa, Wilson of Mitchell, Witthauer, Mr. Speaker—90.

The nays were :

Coakley, Johnston of Lucas, Lenoeker, Rayburn, Roberts—5.

Absent or not voting :

Bronson, Clark, Johnston of Humboldt, Neff, Oldenburg, Petersen, Pitt, Purdy, Rees, Schmedika, Shaeffer, Swenson, Wilson of Mahaska—13.

So the bill having received a constitutional majority was declared to have passed the House and the title was agreed to.

EXPLANATION OF VOTE.

I voted for Senate File No. 288 for the reason that I did not want in any way to cripple a state educational institution. I voted for the amendment to cut down the appropriation, which was defeated, believing that more money was asked than necessary. I had a resolution prepared asking for an expert examination of our educational institutions, to cut out duplication of studies in each institution, but since we have adjourned have the promise of a prominent member of the House that this will be done and a report made to the thirty-seventh general assembly, so I considered that if this matter was being done my resolution would be unnecessary. It is my belief that duplication of departments leads to extravagant expenditures, and this is the main trouble with our institutions.

S. H. BAUMAN.

MR. SPEAKER—I have tried honestly to reduce the extravagant and unwarranted appropriation for the agricultural college by voting for the amendment by McFerren cutting off $105,000.00 from the amount provided for by this bill, but as the House has refused to adopt the amendment I am left no other alternative but to vote for this bill or to deny the college the support it deserves, I therefore voted aye.

GEO. W. BALL.

MR. SPEAKER—I voted in favor of the amendment to reduce the large appropriation for Ames college by the amount of $105,000.00. The amount of appropriations keeps increasing. All efforts to reduce these appropriations are unavailing.

I voted for the bill because these institutions must receive support.

R. W. ANDERSON.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON ENROLLED BILLS.

Sawyer of Lee, from the committee on enrolled bills, submitted the following report:

MR. SPEAKER—Your committee on enrolled bills respectfully report that they have examined, and find correctly enrolled, House File No. 626, a bill for an act to amend section ten hundred fifty-six-a-twenty-six (1056-a26), supplement to the Code, 1913, relative to the appointment of police judges in cities of the first and second class.

Absent or not voting:

Brammer, Clark, Coakley, Coast, Craven, Crozier, Gilmore, Jessen, Johnston of Humboldt, Jones of Dickinson, Kelso, Kipple, Miller, Oldenburg, Pitt, Purdy, Rees, Schmedika, Turner—19.

So the bill having received a constitutional majority was declared to have passed the House and the title was agreed to.

COMMUNICATION FROM MRS. CARL B. PETERS.

The following communication was received:

NEWTON, IOWA, APRIL 12, 1915.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES, 36TH GENERAL ASSEMBLY.

DEAR FRIENDS—I want to thank you all for the kindness you showed during the sickness and death of my husband, Carl B. Peters. It was greatly appreciated by us all. I meant to write before this, but could not bring myself to do it.

Thanking you all, I remain,

Sincerely,

MRS. CARL B. PETERS AND FAMILY.

Swain of Mills offered the following resolution, asked unanimous consent for its immediate consideration and moved its adoption:

RESOLUTION.

WHEREAS, John Parker, an honored member of the 26th and 27th General Assemblies, died at his home in Malvern, Iowa, on April 7, 1915, therefore,

Be It Resolved, that a committee of three be appointed to present suitable resolutions commemorating his life and services to the state.

Motion prevailed and the resolution was adopted.

The Speaker appointed as members of the committee, Swain of Mills, Ring of Linn and Rogers of Carroll.

CONSIDERATION OF BILLS.

On motion of Jamison of Des Moines, Senate File No. 621, a bill for an act to amend the law relating to the trapping and hunting of animals, birds and game, as the same appears in section twenty-five hundred fifty-three (2553) of the code and section twenty-five hundred sixty-three-a-one (2563-a1), supplement to the code, 1913, was taken up and considered.

Rowles of Monona moved that Senate File No. 621 be re-referred to the sifting committee.

Motion prevailed and Senate File No. 621 was re-referred to the sifting committee.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE.

Anderson of Greene, from the committee on appropriations, submitted the following report:

MR. SPEAKER—Your committee on appropriations, to whom was referred Senate File No. 265, a bill for an act to amend the law as it appears in Chapter Thirteen (13) title twelve (XII), supplement to the code, 1913, relating to the dairy and food commissioner, providing license for emulsifying devices, and to adopt and establish a state trade mark for butter, beg leave to report they have had the same under consideration and have instructed me to report the same back to the House with the recommendation that the same be amended as follows:

That Senate File No. 265 be amended by striking out all after the enacting clause and substituting in lieu thereof the following:

SECTION 1. That the law as it appears in Section Twenty-five Hundred and Fifteen-f (2515-f), Supplement to the Code, 1913, be and the same is hereby amended by adding after the word "commissioner" in the twenty-fourth (24) and twenty-fifth (25) lines the following:

"For the purpose of insuring a higher standard of excellence and quality, a more uniform butter market, a higher market value for the butter manufactured in the state, and to insure a more healthful product for consumption at home and abroad, there is hereby created and adopted the following State Trade Mark (or such modification thereof as may be made by the Executive Committee to meet the requirements of the United States copyright laws) for butter manufactured in the state of Iowa. The mark shall consist of a heavy circle with an inner light circle, the center space being occupied by an outline of the map of Iowa and within the outline shall appear in prominent letters the words 'Iowa Butter.' In the space above the outline and within the light circle shall appear the words 'First Quality. License No. ' and the words 'State Butter Control' shall be inserted in the space below the outline of the map and within the light circle. Said trade-mark and its use and regulation shall be in charge of and under the control of an Executive Committee of five members consisting of the President of the Iowa State Dairy Association, the President of the Iowa State Buttermakers' Association, the Dean of the Division of Agriculture of the Iowa State College of Agriculture and Mechanic Arts, the Professor of Dairying of the same institution, and the Dairy and Food Commissioner of the State of Iowa.

The State Trade Mark shall be controlled, used, manufactured and issued under such rules and regulations as may be found necessary, from time to time, by the said Executive Committee, such Executive Committee shall have power to make such changes in the rules and regulations for the use of said trade mark as it may deem necessary from time to time.

The rules governing the use of such trade mark shall be published by and through bulletins issued by the State Dairy and Food Commissioner. Such labels, stamps, or other means of imprinting such trade mark upon the manufactured product, or the receptacles containing the same shall be furnished to those entitled to the use thereof by the State Dairy and Food Commissioner at actual cost.

The said Executive Committee is hereby directed and authorized to secure a copyright under the laws of the United States for trade-marks, and copyrights for such trade-mark for butter, and the expenses thereof shall be paid for from the funds appropriated for the use of the State Dairy and Food Department.

It shall be unlawful for any person, firm, corporation, association or individual to use the said trade-mark for butter on their products without first complying with all the rules and regulations prescribed by the said Executive Committee for the use of the same."

SECTION 2. That the law as it appears in Section Twenty-five Hundred Fifteen, Supplement to the Code, 1913, be and the same is hereby amended by striking out the word "two" where the same appears at the end of line forty-two (42) and substituting in lieu thereof the word "four".

And when so amended the bill do pass.

W. W. ANDERSON,
Chairman.

Report adopted.

So the House concurred in the Senate amendments.

On request of Bingham of Emmet, unanimous consent having been given House File No. 576, a bill for an act to provide for joint action between the duly constituted authorities of this state having jurisdiction of drainage proceedings and like authorities of adjoining states, with a view to joint and equitable drainage of lands of both states, and to provide for the procedure in such cases, with Senate amendments, was taken up and the amendments read and considered.

SENATE AMENDMENTS.

Strike out all after the enacting clause and substitute in lieu thereof:

SECTION 1. Whenever proceedings for the drainage of lands within this state and bordering upon the state line are had and the total cost, including all damages, of constructing the improvement in this state has been ascertained by the authorities of this state, and the engineer in charge, before the final establishment of the district, reports that the establishment and construction of such improvements ought to be jointly constructed with like proceedings for the drainage of adjoining lands in an adjoining state and that drainage proceedings are pending in such adjoining state for the drainage of such adjoining lands, then and in that case the said authorities of this state may enter an order continuing the hearing on the establishment of such district to the named date, of which all parties shall take notice, but shall have power, whenever the total cost, including damages, of constructing the improvement in such other state has been ascertained by the authorities of such other state, to enter into an arrangement or tentative agreement as to the separate amounts which the authorities of each state should in equity pay toward the construction of the joint undertaking. When such amount is thus determined, the authorities of this state shall enter the same in the minutes of their proceedings and shall proceed therewith as though such amount had been originally determined by them as the cost of constructing the improvement in this state.

When the bids for construction are opened, unless the construction work on each side of the line can go forward independently and without undue friction when let to contractors, no contract shall be let by the authorities in this state, unless by joint conference of the authorities of both states, the acceptance of a bid or bids for the construction of the whole project is first jointly agreed upon, but the contract or contracts for the construction of that portion of the improvement within this state shall be entirely distinct and separate from the contract or contracts let by the authorities of the neighboring state; provided that the contract or contracts for the construction of the work within this state shall not exceed an amount equal to the amount of the benefits assessed in this state less the damages allowed in this state and less the incidental expenses in this state.

SECTION 2. No contract shall be let until the improvement shall be conditionally and finally established in both states, and after final adjustment in both states of damages and benefits both as between individuals and lands. No bonds shall be issued until all litigation in both states arising out of said proceedings, has been finally terminated by actual trial and hearing, or by the expiration of all right of appeal.

SECTION 3. Insofar as applicable, this act shall also apply to the repair and improvement of any work of drainage constructed under its provisions.

So the House concurred in the Senate amendments.

On request of Neff of Pottawattamie, unanimous consent having been given, House File No. 110, a bill for an act to fix and declare the duties of the reporter of the supreme court, to provide the method and manner of publishing and distributing the reports of the supreme court, to transfer the powers and rights in the present contract for publishing said reports to the judges of the supreme court; to authorize the publication of new editions of any volume of said reports and the terms and conditions thereof, to provide for the copyrights of said reports; to provide for the preparation, printing, binding and certification of the acts of the general assembly and the form and number thereof, to provide for the annotations of the laws of the state and the supplement embracing the same, to provide for the contents of the volumes containing said acts and laws, to provide for a revision of the laws of the state; to fix the salary of the reporter of the supreme court, to make annual appropriations for said work, and to repeal chapter four (4) of title three (3), section thirty-eight (38), section thirty-nine (39), section forty (40), and section one hundred thirty-three (133), of the code, with Senate amendments, was taken up and the amendments read and considered.

SENATE AMENDMENTS.

Amend House File No. 110 as follows:

(1) By striking out all after and including the words "subject to the approval of the trustees of the state library," last appearing in Section 1.

(2) By adding to Section 4 the following:

Provided that a majority of the judges of the supreme court may, if they deem it advisable, make the state its own publisher of the reports, causing the same to be printed and bound by the state printer and binder in the same manner and for the same compensation as is provided by law for other state printing and binding, and in event the state becomes its own publisher, such reports shall be sold and distributed through the office of the secretary of state.

(3) By adding to Section 5 the following:

In event the state becomes its own publisher of the reports, the distribution and exchange provided for in this section shall be held to apply.

(4) By substituting for Section 8 the following:

The reporter of the supreme court shall be ex officio editor of the code and his duties shall be:

To arrange and classify numerically each section of the general statutory law of Iowa upon cards and to keep said cards filed in their proper order in fire-proof cabinets. Said classification of sections shall be instituted upon the same plan as the code supplement of 1913.

To place beneath such sections of statutory law annotations of all decisions of the Iowa supreme court, the federal courts, citing the title, volume and page of the said reports from which the annotation is taken, and the volume and page of every series of reports, where the case from which the annotation is taken is reported.

To place beneath the material called for in the preceding subdivision of this section such other annotations as may be required by the supreme court.

When any section of Iowa law is repealed or amended, the law reporter shall withdraw the card or cards containing said section from the files and replace the same by a card of a different color. If the section is repealed such fact shall be noted on the card placed in the file and the card withdrawn will be placed in its proper place in the files of repealed and amended sections. In case the section is amended the editor shall place on the new card the section as amended and file the old card as in the case of a repealed section.

The law reporter shall be required to furnish a copy of any section of Iowa law with all matter relating thereto to any state or county officer upon request and to all other parties upon payment of a fee of seventy-five cents (75c).

Section 5. By striking from next to the last line of section 10 the words "Board of Trustees" substituting therefor the words, "Supreme Court" and by adding to said section the following: "The Secretary of State shall deliver to the Supreme Court reporter the enrolled bills for use in proof reading in the preparation of such Supplement, said bills to be receipted for and returned by said Supreme Court reporter when said work is completed and said reporter may obtain from the state the necessary codes, code supplements, Session laws, printing, postage and supplies required in said work upon requisition therefor. Said supplement when so published shall be and become the legal publication of the laws of Iowa not contained in the Code and Supplement to the Code, 1913. The supplemental supplement here provided for shall be completed and ready for distribution by July 4th, 1915, and July 4th following each legislative session thereafter. The Supreme Court shall be substituted for the Code Supplement supervising committee appointed under the authority of Chapter One (1) of the Acts of the 35th General Assembly and the Editor therein chosen as provided therein, shall under supervision of said court, aid the Supreme Court reporter in the preparation of said supplemental supplement for 1915, and said Editor shall deliver to the Supreme Court reporter for his use all classified matter, card indexes, compilations, annotations and other material in his possession relating to the Code, the Code Supplement or the statutory law and said Editor shall receive therefor and for the services so rendered in assisting in the compilation of the supplemental supplement 1915, the sum of $2,500.00 payable $200.00 per month until July 1, 1915, and balance upon completion of said supplemental supplement and the said sum of $2,500.00 shall be additional to the sum provided for in section thirteen (13) hereof, and same is hereby appropriated. The said supplemental supplement shall include by revision of the index made in connection with the Supplement to the Code, 1913, an index of the acts of the 36th General Assembly except legalizing and appropriation acts and 4,500 volumes thereof shall be bound containing said index, session laws and annotations and sold for $2.50 per volume and the contents of said volume shall be bound with the Supplement to the Code, 1913, as published in all volumes, over and above said 4,500, and such combined volumes shall be sold for $6.00 per volume.

The contents of the Supplemental Supplement herein provided for shall be set up in linotype and said linotype shall be used only for making the necessary plates for printing and the printer shall be allowed such reasonable compensation for preparing forms for the electrotype as may be approved by the Supreme Court and the linotype slugs from which the plates are made shall be purchased and owned by the state and shall be preserved and protected under authority of the Supreme Court and substituted from time to time in whole or in part as may be necessary in future publication of any Supplement, Supplemental Supplements or codes and the Judges of the Supreme Court are hereby given full authority to contract with reference to the publication thereof as in the matters above provided.

The Supplemental Supplement provided for under this act, including index, shall be furnished free immediately upon completion thereof to all members of the thirty-sixth general assembly. No appropriation acts, legalizing acts or joint resolutions of a private nature shall be printed in the code supplement, but said acts, except legalizing acts, shall be printed in a separate volume bound in paper covers and distributed as other laws and when sold shall be sold at fifty cents (50c) per volume and shall be published under authority of the secretary of state and not to exceed a total of three thousand (3,000) volumes.

(6) By substituting for Section 13 the following:

The law reporter shall receive a salary of thirty-five hundred dollars ($3,500) per annum payable by the state. He may, by and with the consent of the supreme court, employ assistants and clerical help at such compensation as may be fixed by the supreme court, and there is appropriated out of the treasury of Iowa from moneys not otherwise appropriated the sum of eight thousand dollars ($8000) per annum to be used for the purpose of carrying out the provisions of this act.

Amend and change the publication clause of Section Fifteen (15) House File No. 110, by substituting for the same the following:

This act being deemed of immediate importance shall take effect and be in force from and after the date of its publication in the Des Moines News, a newspaper published at Des Moines, Iowa, and in the Daily Non-pariel, a newspaper published at Council Bluffs, Iowa.

Amend by striking out all of section 6 and inserting in lieu thereof the following: "Section 6. The Supreme Court may order the publication of a new edition of any volume of its reports of which the copyright is owned by the reporter, when the public interest requires it, and may require compliance therewith within six months by an order entered of record; and if the reporter neglects or refuses to comply with said order, then such copyright shall be forfeited to the state."

Further amend Section 5 by inserting the word "court" after the word "district" in line 9.

Mr. Neff moved that the House concur in the Senate amendments.

So the House concurred in the Senate amendments.

On request of Anderson of Greene, unanimous consent having been given, House File No. 628, a bill for an act to repeal the law relating to the employment of inmates of the state penitentiary and reformatory as the same appears in section fifty-seven hundred eighteen-a eleven (5718-a11), supplement to the code, 1913, and to enact a substitute therefor, with Senate amendments, was taken up and the amendments read and considered.

SENATE AMENDMENTS.

Amend by striking out all after the enacting clause and inserting the following in lieu thereof:

SECTION 1. That the law as it appears in section fifty-seven hundred eighteen-a eleven (5718-a11), supplement to the code, 1913, be and the same is hereby repealed and the following enacted in lieu thereof:

The inmates of the penitentiary and of the reformatory shall be employed only on state account and for state use and on any public works; provided, however, that none of said employment for state account or state use shall be exercised or performed within the corporate limits of the city of Fort Madison or the city of Anamosa, unless performed on state premises, and excepting such employment as pertains to existing contracts or exclusively for the benefit of the state. Said employment shall be conducive to the teaching of useful trades and callings so far as practicable, and the intellectual and moral development of such inmates; provided, however, such inmates may be employed to complete any contracts now existing for prison labor to be performed in such penitentiary or reformatory. The Board of control is hereby authorized and empowered to establish such industries as it may deem advisable at said penitentiary, and at said reformatory, and at or in connection with any of the penal, reformatory or other institutions under its jurisdiction, and the inmates may render service as herein limited and defined, at or away from any of said institutions with the consent of said board of control, but no service shall be rendered by any such inmate for any person, firm or corporation at a less wage than is paid free labor for a like service or its equivalent, and when so rendering service they shall be held to be under the jurisdiction of the warden or superintendent of the institution to which they are committed, and any escape shall be punished as provided in section forty-eight hundred ninety-seven-a (4897-a), supplement to the code, 1913, even though said inmate is at the time working under the honor system.

SECTION 2. Whenever services are rendered by any inmate at any institution under the supervision and jurisdiction of the board of control, the board of control may whenever practicable allow such inmate compensation which shall not exceed the amount paid to free labor for a like service or its equivalent, less such amount that the state is put to for maintenance as the board of control may deem equitable, and in addition to deducting an amount to defray the cost of maintenance, the board of control may also deduct an amount sufficient to pay all or a part of the costs taxed to any inmate by reason of his commitment. Whenever the board of control deducts an amount from the earnings of any inmate for the purpose of defraying the costs taxed to such inmate by reason of his commitment, said board shall forward the amount to the clerk of the district court, or proper official, and receive his receipt therefor; provided further, that whenever money is earned by an inmate under the provisions of this act, the board of control may, whenever deemed advisable, pay all or any part of the same direct to the husband or wife or any other member of the family of such inmate dependent upon him or her for support, or deposit the same to the account of such inmate until released, or allow said inmate a certain per cent thereof for his personal benefit, and make all rules and regulations in relation thereto, including the right to deposit funds in any bank to the credit of such inmate and require such bank to pay interest on any money so deposited by or for such inmate at rates not to exceed the current rate of interest paid for similar deposits.

SECTION 3. Any inmate of the penitentiary, and any inmate of the reformatory, who may hereafter be engaged or employed in any service or labor outside the walls of the institution to which he or she is sentenced, or who may be listed as a "trustee," or "honor" inmate of such institution, may, at the discretion of the said board of control, or at the discretion of the warden of such institution acting under authority of the said board of control, be given and allowed a special reduction in term of sentence at the rate of ten (10) days for each and every month so employed or listed; and every month of such employment shall be counted one month and ten days in point of service on the sentence to be served in addition to the "good time" allowed by law for good behavior; and the said board of control is hereby authorized and empowered to grant and allow such extra good time or special commutation of sentence, and to make all rules and regulations in relation thereto.

SECTION 4. All acts and parts of acts insofar as they are in conflict with this act are hereby repealed.

SECTION 5. This act, being deemed of immediate importance, shall take effect and be in force from and after its publication in the Register and Leader and the Denison Bulletin, newspapers published at Des Moines, Iowa, and Denison, Iowa.

Also amend the pending substitute bill by adding after the word "reformatory" and before the period, as the same appears in line 16 of Sec. 1, the following:

"But such contract shall not be extended nor renewals thereof entered into nor like contracts made unless by this act otherwise provided."

Mr. Anderson moved that the House concur in the Senate amendments.

CONSIDERATION OF BILLS.

On request of Brady of Dallas, unanimous consent having been given, House Joint Resolution No. 9, joint resolution approving estimates of cost, plans and specifications for buildings at the state university of Iowa, Iowa state college of agriculture and mechanic arts, and the Iowa state teachers college, with Senate amendments, was taken up and the amendments read and considered.

SENATE AMENDMENTS.

Amend House Joint Resolution No. 9 by striking out from line 11 and 12 the words "and a building for botany and geology."

Also amend by striking from lines 14 and 15 the words "building for agricultural engineering."

Also amend by striking from lines 15 and 16 the words "and a dairy barn."

Also amend by striking from lines 6 and 7 of Sec. 1 the words and figures "and a building for botany and geology at a cost not to exceed Two Hundred Thousand ($200,000.00) Dollars."

Also amend by striking from lines 6 and 7 of Sec. 2 the words and figures "A building for agricultural engineering at a cost not to exceed One Hundred Fifty Thousand ($150,000.00) Dollars."

Also amend by striking from lines 9 and 10 of Sec. 2 the words and figures "and a dairy barn at a cost not to exceed Twenty Thousand ($20,000.00) Dollars."

Also amend by striking out Sec. 4 and inserting in lieu thereof the following as Sec. 4:

"The state board of education is hereby authorized to erect and equip all of the buildings enumerated in Sec. 1, 2 and 3 of this joint resolution from the funds appropriated for such buildings and equipment by the 36th General Assembly, provided that the expenditure for the building shall not exceed the amount mentioned in this resolution for such building."

Mr. Brady moved that the House concur in the Senate amendments.

On the question, "Shall the House concur?"

The ayes were:

Anderson of Davis, Bailey, Eggleston, Ingwersen, Klinker, Lenocker, Miller, Oldenburg, Richards, Ring, Roberts, Rone, Smith, Spotts, Stokes, Thompson, Tucker, Wayman, Wilson of Cherokee—19.

The nays were:

CONSIDERATION OF BILLS.

REPORT OF CONFERENCE COMMITTEE.

Rogers of Carroll, from the conference committee on Senate File No. 34, submitted the following report and moved its adoption:

MR. SPEAKER—Your conference committee, to whom was referred Senate File No. 34, a bill for an act to amend Section 3477-a, supplement to the code, 1913, relating to the recovery by a woman or her estate for personal injury, beg to report that they have had the same under consideration and submit the following report:

That the House recede from its amendment to said Senate File No. 34 as amended by the Senate.

That the Senate amendment to said Senate File No. 34 be amended by striking out the word "ten" in the last line of Section 1 thereof and inserting therefor the word "fifteen".

DOUGLAS ROGERS,
ROBERT BRUCE,
D. C. STEELSMITH,
H. C. RING,

Conferees on the part of the House.

CHAS. C. HELMER,
JOHN T. CLARKSON,
A. W. PARKER,
CLEM. F. KIMBALL,

Conferees on the part of the Senate.

On the question, "Shall the report of the conference committee be adopted?"

The ayes were:

Anderson of Montgomery, Anderson of Greene, Anderson of Winnebago, Anderson of Davis, Ball, Becker, Bingham, Brady, Brammer, Bronson, Bruce, Buxton, Crozier, Doze, Durant, Eggleston, Elwood, Freeman, Gilbert, Gilmore, Grason, Gray, Greene, Hadley, Helming, Herman, Horchem, Ingwersen, Jones of Cerro Gordo, Kimberly, Klinker, Kopp, Lenoeker, Lueders, McFarlane, McFerren, Mackie, Moore, Munro, Murray, Nicholson, Oldenburg, Rayburn, Reese, Ring, Roberts, Rogers, Rone, Rowles, Shortess, Slaughter, Smith, Spotts, Steelsmith, Stokes, Tucker, Wayman, Wigdahl, Wilson of Cherokee, Wilson of Louisa, Wilson of Mahaska, Wilson of Mitchell, Witthauer, Mr. Speaker—64.

The nays were:

Shaeffer—1.

Absent or not voting:

Bailey, Barry, Bauman, Clark, Coakley, Coast, Cochrane, Craven, Darrah, Garton, Griffin, Hale, Hall, Holbert, Jamison, Jessen, Johnston of Humboldt, Johnston of Lucas, Jones of Dickinson, Kane, Kelso, Kepple, Lee, McDermid, Michael, Miller, Neff, Nordyke, Petersen, Pitt, Purdy, Rees, Richards, Sawyer, Schmedika Stone, Sullivan, Swain, Swenson, Taylor, Thompson, Turner, Wenstrand—43.

So the motion prevailed and the report was adopted.

On request of Ingwersen of Clinton, unanimous consent having been given, House File No. 458, a bill for an act to repeal section two hundred ninety-eight (298) supplement of the code, 1913, relating to compensation of deputy clerks of the district court and to enact a substitute therefor, with Senate amendments, was taken up and the amendments read and considered.

SENATE AMENDMENTS.

Amend by substituting the words "thirty-five" for the words "twenty-five" in line 17 of section 1 of the bill.

Mr. Ingwersen moved that the House concur in the Senate amendments.

On the question, "Shall the House concur?"

The ayes were:

Anderson of Montgomery, Anderson of Winnebago, Anderson of Davis, Bailey, Ball, Becker, Bingham, Brady, Brammer, Bronson, Bruce, Buxton, Darrah, Durant, Eggleston, Elwood, Gilbert, Gilmore, Grason, Gray, Greene, Griffin, Hadley, Hale, Hall, Helming, Herman, Holbert, Horchem, Ingwersen, Jamison, Kane, Kimberly, Klinker, Lee, Lenocker, Lueders, McFarlane, Mackie, Munro, Murray, Neff, Nicholson, Nordyke, Oldenburg, Rayburn, Reese, Roberts, Rogers, Rone, Sawyer, Schmedika, Shaeffer, Shortess, Slaughter, Smith, Spotts, Steelsmith, Stokes, Stone, Taylor, Thompson, Tucker, Wayman, Wigdahl, Wilson of Cherokee, Witthauer, Mr. Speaker—68.

Absent or not voting:

Anderson of Greene, Anderson of Davis, Barry, Bauman, Brucé, Buxton, Clark, Coast, Cochrane, Craven, Crozier, Darrah, Doze, Gilbert, Grason, Griffin, Hadley, Hale, Hall, Helming, Herman, Jessen, Johnston of Humboldt, Johnston of Lucas, Jones of Cerro Gordo, Jones of Dickinson, Kelso, Klinker, Kopp, McDermid, Mackie, Michael, Petersen, Pitt, Purdy, Rayburn, Roberts, Schmed-ika, Sullivan, Swain, Swenson, Turner, Wenstrand—43.

So the House refused to reconsider the vote by which Senate File No. 325 failed to pass the House.

REPORT OF CONFERENCE COMMITTEE.

Klinker of Crawford, from the conference committee on Senate File No. 555, submitted the following report and moved its adoption:

MR. SPEAKER—Your conference committee to adjust the differences of the Senate and House on Senate File No. 555, relating to the appropriations for the erection, repair, improvement, etc., of institutions under the Board of Control, after fully and freely conferring, beg leave to report and recommend the following:

That all pending House amendments to the bill be stricken out:

Amend Senate File No. 555 by striking out of lines six (6) and seven (7) of Section One (1) the words and figures "Eight Hundred Twenty-five Thousand Dollars ($825,000.00)" and inserting in lieu thereof the words and figures "Six Hundred Seventy-five Thousand Dollars ($675,000.00)", also

By striking out of line eighteen (18) Section one (1) the words and figures "Four Hundred Thousand Dollars ($400,000.00)" and inserting in lieu thereof the words and figures "Three Hundred Twenty-five Thousand Dollars ($325,000.00)" also

By striking out of line twenty (20) of Section One (1) the words and figures "Four Hundred Twenty-five Thousand Dollars ($425,000.00)" and inserting in lieu thereof the words and figures "Three Hundred Fifty Thousand Dollars ($350,000.00)".

Amend Section Four (4) in lines seven (7) and eight (8) by striking out the words and figures "One Hundred Thousand Dollars ($100,000.00)" and inserting in lieu thereof the words and figures ($50,000.00)" and

Amend the bill by striking out all of Section Five (5) and Further amend the bill by striking out the words "District Custodial Farm" wherever the same appears in the title and body of said bill.

P. J. KLINKER,
A. J. KANE,
JUSTIN BABBY,
O. A. HELMING,

Conferees on the part of the House.

T. J. B. ROBINSON,
L. W. BOE,
G. L. CASWELL,

Conferees on the part of the Senate.

On the question, "Shall the report of the conference committee on Senate File No. 555 be adopted?"

The ayes were:

Anderson of Montgomery, Anderson of Greene, Anderson of Winnebago, Anderson of Davis, Bailey, Ball, Becker, Bingham, Brammer, Bronson, Bruce, Buxton, Coakley, Cochrane, Darrah, Durant, Elwood, Freeman, Garton, Gilbert, Gilmore, Grason, Gray, Greene, Hadley, Hall, Helming, Holbert, Horchem, Ingwersen, Jamison, Jones of Cerro Gordo, Kane, Kimberly, Klinker, Kopp, Lee, Lueders, McFarlane, Moore, Munro, Murray, Neff, Nicholson, Nordyke, Rayburn, Rees, Reese, Richards, Ring, Roberts, Rogers, Rone, Rowles, Sawyer, Shortess, Slaughter, Spotts, Stokes, Stone, Sullivan, Taylor, Thompson, Tucker, Wayman, Wilson of Cherokee, Wilson of Louisa, Wilson of Mahaska, Wilson of Mitchell, Witthauer, Mr. Speaker—71.

So the report of the conference committee on Senate File No. 555 was adopted.

On motion of Taylor of Buchanan, Senate File No. 638, a bill for an act to indemnify and pay to E. O. Sherman the sum of three thousand dollars ($3,000.00) for the loss and damage sustained by him in the death of his son, Ralph Sherman, caused by being killed on the campus of the state college of agriculture at Ames, December 6, 1914, was taken up and considered.

Taylor of Buchanan moved to suspend the rule requiring all appropriations bills to be referred to the committee on appropriations before being acted upon by the House, and the rule forbidding the second and third reading of bills on the same day.

Motion prevailed and the rules were suspended.

Mr. Taylor moved that the rules be suspended, the bill be read a third time now, which motion prevailed, and the bill was read a third time.

On the question, "Shall the bill pass?"

The ayes were :

Anderson of Montgomery, Anderson of Greene, Anderson of Winnebago, Becker, Bingham, Brady, Brammer, Bronson, Bruce, Buxton, Coast, Cochrane, Crozier, Darrah, Durant, Elwood, Freeman, Garton, Gilbert, Gilmore, Grason, Gray, Greene, Hadley, Hale, Hall, Helming, Herman, Holbert, Ingwersen, Jones of Cerro Gordo, Kane, Kepple, Kimberly, Kopp, Lee, Lueders, McFarlane, Munro, Nicholson, Nordyke, Rayburn, Rees, Reese, Richards, Ring, Roberts, Rone, Sawyer, Shaeffer, Shortess, Slaught, Spotts, Stone, Taylor, Tucker, Wayman, Wigdahl, Wilson of Cherokee, Wilson of Louisa, Witthauer, Mr. Speaker—62.

oeker, McFerren, Moore, Rogers, Rowles, Schmedika, Smith, Steel-smith, Stokes, Sullivan, Thompson, Wilson of Mahaska—18.

Absent or not voting :

Barry, Bauman, Craven, Doze, Griffin, Horchem, Jamison, Jessen, Johnston of Humboldt, Johnston of Lucas, Jones of Dickinson, Kelso, Klinker, McDermid, Mackie, Michael, Miller, Murray, Neff, Oldenburg, Petersen, Pitt, Purdy, Swain, Swenson, Turner, Wenstrand, Wilson of Mitchell—28.

So the bill having failed to receive a constitutional majority was declared to have failed to pass the House.

REPORT OF CONFERENCE COMMITTEE.

Anderson of Montgomery called up the report of the conference committee on Senate File No. 190, and moved its adoption.

Your conference committee to adjust the differences of the Senate and House on Senate File No. 190, a bill for an act to repeal the law as it appears in sections twenty-eight hundred twenty-four (2824), twenty-eight hundred thirty-six (2836), of the code, and twenty-eight hundred thirty-one (2831) and twenty-eight hundred thirty-two (2832), supplement to the code, 1913, relating to the formation of the county board of education and defining the duties of said board, after fully and freely conferring, beg leave to report and recommend the following substitute for same and recommend its adoption.

CLAUS L. ANDERSON,

GEO. W. CROZIER,

C. W. MILLER,

GEO. F. TUCKER,

On the part of the House.

C. H. THOMAS,

JOHN T. CLARKSON.

L. W. BOE,

On the part of the Senate.

Conference Committee recommendations :

A BILL FOR AN ACT to Repeal the Law as It Appears in Sections Twenty-eight Hundred Twenty-four (2824) and Twenty-eight Hundred Thirty-six (2836) of the Code and Twenty-eight Hundred Thirty-one (2831) and Twenty-eight Hundred Thirty-two (2832), Supplement to the Code, 1913, Relating to the Formation of the County Board of Education, Defining the Duties of Said Board; and to Provide for Elections on the Questions of Adopting or Approving County Uniformity of Text Books and Free Books and for the Purchase and Distribution and Sale of Text Books; and Prohibiting Publishers of School Text Books and Others from Taking Any Part In Connection With the Submission to the People of the Question of County Uniformity of Text Books.

Amend by striking out all after the enacting clause and substituting in lieu thereof, the following:

SEC. 1. That the law as it appears in section twenty-eight hundred twenty-four (2824) of the code be and the same is hereby repealed and the following enacted in lieu thereof:

The board of directors of each and every public school in the state of Iowa, excepting those adopting county uniformity of school text books as hereinafter provided for, is hereby authorized and empowered to adopt text books for the teaching of all branches that are now or may hereafter be authorized to be taught in the said public schools of the state, and to contract for and buy said books and any and all other necessary school supplies at said contract prices, and to sell the same to the pupils of their respective districts at cost, and said money so received shall be returned to the contingent fund. The books and supplies so purchased shall be under the charge of the board, who may select one or more persons within the county to keep said books and supplies for sale, and, to insure the safety of the books and supplies for sale, shall require of each person so appointed a bond in such sum as may seem to the board to be desirable.

SEC. 2. That the law as it appears in section twenty-eight hundred thirty-one (2831), supplement to the code, 1913, be and the same is hereby repealed and the following enacted in lieu thereof:

(a) The county board of education shall consist of the county superintendent of schools, who shall be chairman ex-officio with power to call said board together at the county seat, a member of the board of supervisors, and three other persons named as hereinafter directed, one of whom shall be a member of a school board in the county at the time of his appointment and a resident of a school corporation using the uniform text books and chosen both for his business and educational qualifications, and two resident educators of standing who are engaged in teaching in the county at the time of their appointment, one of whom shall be a teacher in a rural school with not less than two years' experience in teaching, and one a teacher in a city or town school who has had not less five years' experience in teaching, both of whom possess either a first grade uniform county certificate or a regular state certificate, or a state diploma; but no two of such three members shall be from the same school corporation, or from the same civil township. Before entering upon their duties, they shall qualify by taking the oath of office.

(b) The board of supervisors sitting with the county superintendent of schools who shall act as chairman, and the county auditor, who shall act as secretary, and each having a vote, shall at the regular meeting of the board of supervisors in January, 1916, or if no meeting be held in January, then at the next regular meeting thereafter, choose the four members of the county board of education as by this act provided, excepting counties now having contracts under the law for uniform text books, the county board of education shall not be chosen until the Janu-any session of the county board of supervisors next preceding the expiration of such contract.

The members of such county board of education shall serve for five years from the date of their appointment and until their successors are chosen and qualified, and new appointments shall be made in the same way at the close of each recurring five-year period. Vacancies in the county board of education by removal from the county or by ceasing to be a member of the class from which such member was originally chosen or otherwise, having authority to make original appointments, shall be filled from the same body and from the same class in which the vacancy occurs.

The county auditor shall keep a full and complete record of all meetings called to select the county board of education in a book provided for that purpose.

(c) In all counties now having or hereafter adopting uniform text books, the county board of education shall meet and select and adopt and contract for uniform school text books in and for such county, under such rules and regulations as they may adopt and in accordance with the provisions of section twenty-eight hundred twenty-eight (2828) supplement to the code, 1913. Text books thus selected shall be the latest editions and shall be used in the elementary grades of all school districts in the county in so far as county uniformity of text books applies as by law provided. It shall be the duty of the county superintendent with the approval of the chairman of the board of supervisors to order such additional books from time to time under this contract as may be necessary.

(d) In counties operating under county uniformity of text books no adoptions shall be made until the expiration of existing contracts.

(e) Any bidder, or any person in behalf of any bidder, who gives, or offers to give any member of the county board of education, any gift or favor of value, or attempts to influence the action of the members of said board, except by arguments, and any member of the county board of education who accepts from any bidder, or any person in the interest of any bidder, any gift or favor of value, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor; and conviction of any member of said board shall disqualify him from further service on said board; provided that any member of such board may accept one copy only of any school text book upon which bids have been submitted by any person, firm or corporation.

(f) Any bidder, or any person in behalf of any bidder, who gives or offers to give any gift or favor of value, or attempts in any way to influence the selection of the county board of education, or any member of said appointing board who accepts any gifts or favor of value from any bidder, or from any person in behalf of such bidder shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor.

(g) The compensation allowed the members of said board of education shall be the same mileage and per diem as is received by the board of supervisors for session work; provided that no member shall be paid or allowed two salaries for the same day's work.

SEC. 3. That the law as it appears in section twenty-eight hundred thirty-two (2832), supplement to the code, 1913, be and the same is hereby repealed and the following enacted in lieu thereof:

When a list of text books has been selected they shall be used in the elementary grades of all public schools of said county except as herein provided and the board of supervisors may arrange for such depositories and under such rules and regulations as they may deem best, and shall require such bond as may be necessary from such depositories to safeguard the public interests.

It shall be the duty of the county board of education to select the books necessary and to execute contracts for the same in triplicate; one copy of which shall be given to the successful bidder, one copy to the board of supervisors and one copy shall be mailed to the state superintendent of public instruction.

It is hereby made the duty of the county board of supervisors to pay for the books purchased under this contract out of the county fund upon itemized invoice bills approved by the county superintendent.

The books shall be sold by the depositories at the contract price at which they are obtained by the county. When a family residing in territory to which county uniformity applies removes from the county, the superintendent, or depository of the school district in which he resides, may purchase out of the proper fund, the text books in actual use by the children of the family at a fair price, based on the condition of the books and under such rules and regulations as the county board of education may adopt; such books to be resold, when necessary, to other pupils moving into such county or district.

The county superintendent shall have charge of such text books and the distribution thereof among the depositories selected by the board of supervisors and shall return monthly to the county fund all moneys received for the sale of text books.

It shall be the duty of the county superintendent to keep an account with each depository and to check up the books on hand at least once in every three months, and he shall render to the board of supervisors, at their January and June meetings, an account of his doings and shall be liable on his official bond therefor.

SEC. 4. In every county not having adopted uniform school text books there shall be submitted to the voters at the regular school election in March, 1916, and every five (5) years thereafter the board of supervisors may upon their own motion, or upon petition of ten (10) per cent of the voters as shown by the number of votes cast at the last election where-at the proposition was submitted to the voters for determination, shall, at the annual election in March, submit to the qualified electors the question whether the county shall adopt uniform school text books.

Notice of the submission of said question shall be given in writing by the county superintendent to the secretary of each school corporation within said county not less than thirty days prior to the holding of said annual school meetings, and each said secretary shall include the same in his call for said meeting. The form of the submission of said question shall be: Shall county uniformity of text books be adopted? Yes. No. The county superintendent shall cause sufficient ballots to be printed and distributed to the several school secretaries within said county not less than three days prior to holding of said school elections. The votes shall be canvassed by the respective boards of directors and the result thereof certified to by the president and secretary of said board of directors, and the secretary of said school board shall transmit the same promptly to the county auditor. Said several returns shall, as soon as practicable thereafter, be canvassed by a board of canvassers consisting of the county auditor, county superintendent and the chairman of the county board of supervisors of said county, and if a majority of the votes cast are in favor of said proposition it shall be declared duly carried, and the result thereof duly published. The cost of printing and distributing of said ballots shall be paid out of the general county fund. It shall be unlawful for any school book house, firm or corporation or their agents or representatives in any way to interfere or attempt to interfere or to exert influence in any manner upon the voters in any county either in favor of or against the adoption of county uniformity. Any person or persons found guilty of such act shall, upon conviction thereof be fined not less than one thousand dollars ($1,000.00).

SEC. 5. The provision of this act as to county uniformity including sections twenty-eight hundred thirty-one (2831), twenty-eight hundred thirty-two (2832), of this chapter, shall not apply to public schools located within cities and towns; but nothing herein shall be construed as to prevent such schools in said cities and towns from adopting and buying the school books adopted by the county board of education at the prices fixed for the sale of same to the public schools of the county, if a majority of the school board in any such city or town shall so decide at a regularly called meeting for that purpose, ten days' notice in writing having been given each member of said board. Such a meeting may be called by the president of the board, or by petition of two members of any such board filed with the secretary.

SEC. 6. That the law as it appears in section twenty-eight hundred thirty-six (2836) of the code be and the same is hereby repealed and the following enacted in lieu thereof:

In each city, town and village corporation in which free text books are not provided for, the board of directors of such school corporation in the state of Iowa, shall submit to the voters of said school corporations at the regular meeting in March, 1916, and at such annual elections thereafter as petitioned for by ten per cent of the electors, based upon the vote whereat a like proposition had been submitted to the voters of such corporation, the proposition of adopting free text books; and the board of each and every rural school corporation may upon its own motion, or shall upon petition of ten per cent of the electors residing within the school corporation, submit to the qualified electors the question of free text books for use of pupils in the public schools thereof, and the secretary shall cause notice of such proposition to be given in the notice for the annual meeting, and in any school corporation in which text books are now or may hereafter be furnished free, the board of directors of said school corporation is hereby authorized and empowered and it shall be their duty, to select the text books to be used in the schools of such corporation, and it is provided that in counties having county uniformity of text books the school board of corporations coming under the provisions of county uniformity shall select and purchase the uniform series adopted by the county board of education. It is also provided that the proposition of free text books may be submitted once only in five years except by petition as heretofore provided for.

SEC. 7. All acts or parts of acts inconsistent herewith are hereby repealed.

CONCURRENT RESOLUTION.

WHEREAS, Our State has no flag known as the official flag of the State of Iowa, and

WHEREAS, By the Thirty-fifth General Assembly, a commission composed of the Governor, the Adjutant General, and the Curator of the Historical Department, was by concurrent resolution created for the purpose of inquiring into and reporting upon the expediency of the adoption of a flag to be known as the official flag of Iowa and upon the appropriateness of the design therefor, if any were recommended for adoption, and

WHEREAS, Said commission has not completed its investigation and report,

Therefore, Be It Resolved by the Senate, the House Concurring, that said commission be continued and directed to report to the Thirty-seventh General Assembly.

Motion prevailed and the House concurred in the resolution.

MOTION TO RECONSIDER.

The following motion to reconsider was filed:

MR. SPEAKER—I move to reconsider the vote by which Senate File No. 189 passed the House.

I second the motion.

C. E. BRONSON.

ROY W. MURRAY.

ARCH W. MCFARLANE.

EXPLANATION OF FILING OF MOTION TO RECONSIDER.

Relative to reconsideration of Senate File No. 189, the bill in the main is good, however, some amendments would greatly improve it.

ROY W. MURRAY.

Garton of Polk offered the following resolution, asked unanimous consent for its immediate consideration and moved its adoption:

RESOLUTION.

WHEREAS, Hon. Bradford B. Lane, a member of this House in the Twenty-third and Twenty-fourth General Assemblies, departed this life in the month of July, 1913, I move that a committee be appointed to draft resolutions commemorative of his life and public service.

Motion prevailed, the resolution was adopted, and the Speaker appointed as members of such committee Garton of Polk, Brammer of Polk and Sullivan of Kossuth.

CHAS. F. SAWYER,
Chairman.

Adopted.

Ring of Linn offered the following resolution, asked unanimous consent for its immediate consideration and moved its adoption :

RESOLUTION.

Be It Resolved, That, in appreciation of his valued services, his marked ability and the fair, impartial and conscientious manner in which he has from time to time presided over the deliberations of this House, the representatives of the thirty-sixth general assembly hereby express to Hon. Lee Elwood, speaker pro tem, their hearty good will and extend to him their sincere best wishes for his future happiness and prosperity.

Motion prevailed and the resolution was adopted by unanimous rising vote of the House.

Speaker pro tempore Elwood in the chair.

Brammer of Polk, on behalf of the members of the thirty-sixth general assembly, presented Speaker Atkinson with a chair and gavel, prefacing the presentation with the following remarks:

MR. SPEAKER AND GENTLEMEN OF THE HOUSE:—

The Thirty-sixth General Assembly of Iowa is about to close, and while all of us have been looking forward to this moment more or less impatiently, now that the end is near I am sure that I express the sentiment of all of us when I say that our feelings are not all of joy and gladness. The pleasant associations that have been here formed and enjoyed cannot be broken up without sadness and regret.

As I review in my own mind the incidents and experiences of this session nothing appeals to me more strongly than the friendships that have grown up and which I am sure will be enduring and a source of much pleasure and satisfaction in the years that are to come. I feel that each member will take home with him no fonder memory than the memory of the friendships and associations of the past three months and the honest, sincere and magnanimous men with whom he has worked in the House of the Thirty-sixth General Assembly.

The members of this House have labored industriously and conscientiously, and in my opinion the accomplishments of this body merit the approval of the people of the state we represent; and it is also my opinion that much of the efficiency of this body has been due to the able and earnest efforts of our Speaker in presiding over our deliberations and in supervising the work we have done.

It is my privilege and pleasure at this time, Mr. Speaker, on behalf of the members of this House, to express to you our appreciation of and gratitude for the uniform courteous and impartial treatment accorded each and every member during the past session. I am confident I voice the conviction of every member when I say, Mr. Speaker, that you have presided over the deliberations of this body with dignity and fairness; you have performed your labors diligently and given energetic attention to the duties of the office to which you were elected by the members of this House.

It is now my great pleasure, Mr. Speaker, as a token of the regard and esteem in which you are held by the members of this House, to present to you, on behalf of the State of Iowa and your fellow members, this beautiful chair and gavel.

Hale of Jones moved that a committee of two be appointed to escort the Speaker to the chair.

Motion prevailed and the Speaker pro tempore appointed as such committee Hale of Jones and Witthauer of Audubon.

The Speaker responded as follows:

GENTLEMEN OF THE 36TH GENERAL ASSEMBLY:—

I can hardly say with my friend, Elwood, that this was a complete surprise to me, as I realize that you are only following a time honored custom in presenting a chair and gavel to the retiring presiding officer, and yet, I like to think that there is more in it than following a mere precedent. Your good words here tonight and your many acts of kindness during the entire session have placed me under everlasting obligation to you and has made this session a bright spot in my life which I shall never forget. It is therefore with mingled feeling of sadness and joy that we approach the closing hours of this session. Joy that our work is finished and that we may return to our homes, but sadness that many pleasant associations of friendship found here are so soon to be broken.

When I assumed the responsible position as Speaker of this House, I promised you that I would endeavor to preside with the utmost impartiality and to give every member a "square deal." To the best of my ability I have carried out this policy and I trust you will believe me when I assert that my mistakes were of the head and not of the heart. "To err is human; to forgive is divine," and I pray you to approach the divine as nearly as possible in dealing with my particular case.

I wish at this time to acknowledge with gratitude the assistance of the distinguished members of this House who contested the Speakership with me. During the entire session no traces of bitterness were evident and all worked faithfully for the best interests of the state and their constituency.

There has been much criticism of the members of this House on the ground that they were reactionary. I do not believe that this criticism is just. So much has been said about high taxes that the members felt that the people demanded economy and were earnestly endeavoring to comply with their demands. How well they succeeded is shown by the reduction in the State levy for the next biennial period. We have heard much in the past about a "Business Administration" and I have often hoped to see some one come out for a "Human" Administration. I am happy to say that the present session of the Iowa Legislature has been a combination of both.

The passage of the bill to give free treatment to poor defective children at the State University Hospital and the Child Labor bill I believe to be the most humane and among the best measures ever enacted by an Iowa Legislature. Personally I believe we should have passed the Child Welfare and Research bill, but your judgment was to the contrary. We have had our differences of opinion on many questions but I firmly believe that they were honest differences and that each member was actuated by unselfish motives and endeavoring to represent his constituency. I do not believe that a more fearless body of men ever represented the great state of Iowa. There were no "dodgers" in the 36th General Assembly. Perhaps the two most important and far-reaching measures were the repeal of the Mulct Tax and the Road bill. On the former every member was present and voted, and on the latter only one was absent and he had been excused on account of illness. I honor the members of the House of the 36th General Assembly for this courage and their willingness to stand up and be counted no matter which way they voted. The people are coming to realize that honesty is not only the best policy but the best politics.

And, now as we are about to adjourn this assembly with no breath of suspicion or suggestion of dishonesty, I am sure that no citizen of Iowa but could well be proud of the honor of presiding over the deliberations of such a body of men.

Again I thank you for this beautiful gift and assure you that it is most appreciated because it carries with it your good will and esteem. May you all enjoy Heaven's richest blessings in the years to come.

I thank you.

Jamison of Des Moines arose to a point of personal privilege.

MR. SPEAKER—In the two terms as a member of this House by which I have been honored by the citizens of Des Moines county, I have noticed the passage of resolutions of respect on the death of former members. They have been so remarkably alike that they seemed a stereotyped form and they passed in absolute indifference by men evidently unacquainted with the deceased.

The personal privilege I ask is that if it be possible, a record may be made somewhere, and this ceremony be omitted when Nature sings her last compelling lullaby and I shall sleep.

These resolutions seem to me to be both unnecessary and in questionable taste. If a member has done his duty it is well, but that surely is not so rare as to call for praise; and if he has not done his duty, it is not becoming to the dignity of this House to spread a solemn lie upon its records.

And for my own part I would much prefer, to all the perfunctory resolutions that could be passed by strangers, that the news that I had gone might waken memories, long dim perhaps, in one who had been a friend here, and stir thoughts of happy hours together, that there might be a little sense of loss, a brief regret that I had gone ahead to meet "the last adventure."

CONSIDERATION OF BILLS.

On request of Anderson of Greene, unanimous consent having been given, House File No. 635, a bill for an act amending the law as it appears in section two hundred twenty-seven (227), supplement to the code, 1913, relative to judicial districts and the number of judges therein and to provide for two judges in the eighth judicial district, with Senate amendments, was taken up and the amendments read and considered.

SENATE AMENDMENTS.

Amend by striking out sections three and four and insert in lieu thereof the following as Section 3:

“The Judge herein provided for shall be nominated at the primary and elected at the General election in the year 1916 and at four year periods thereafter.”

Mr. Anderson moved that the House concur in the Senate amendments.

On the question, “Shall the House concur?”

The ayes were:

RESOLUTIONS IN MEMORIAM.

Adopted by the House of Representatives of the Thirty-sixth General Assembly.

HON. MICHAEL F. M'CULLOUGH.

MR. SPEAKER—Your committee appointed to prepare resolutions commemorating the life and work of the Hon. Michael F. McCullough, late of Dubuque county, Iowa, beg leave to report the following memorial:

Michael F. McCullough was born July 28th, 1854, at Holy Cross, in Dubuque county, Iowa. He spent practically his entire life at the place of his birth. He was a member of an old and respected family, that came to Dubuque in the early pioneer days. He was an active farmer during his entire life, and was known throughout Iowa as one of the leading stockmen of the state.

On September 5th, 1881, in Sioux City, Iowa, he was united in marriage to Miss Tessie Fahey and to them were born eight children, three of whom precede him in death.

He spent the last few years of his life at his home in Laudeville, Dubuque county, Iowa, to which place he moved with his family from his old home at Holy Cross.

He was a man of splendid ability, enterprise and public spirit. He was a devout member of the Catholic church and active in fraternal circles. His ever ready smile and jovial manner endeared him to the hearts of all, young as well as old, to whom he was always known as "Uncle Mike."

In 1910 he was elected to membership in the Thirty-fourth General Assembly and re-elected in 1912 as a member of the Thirty-fifth. He was a man of splendid judgment in all matters, private as well as public, and during his term of service in the Iowa legislature, was regarded as one of its most creditable members.

He was respected by all who knew him for his integrity and uprightness of character, and he was beloved by all for his generous and kindly disposition, therefore, be it

Resolved, That in the death of Michael F. McCullough the state has been called upon to mourn the departure of an able statesman, an upright citizen and an honorable man; and

Be It Further Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be printed in the Journal of the House.

HON. WILLIAM B. TOWNER.

The Hon. William B. Towner, a member of the House of Representatives during the Twenty-seventh and Twenty-eighth General Assemblies, departed this life on the 3rd day of October, 1914, at his home in Charles City, Iowa.

He came to Lake county, Illinois, when he was nineteen years of age, and there in 1856 was united in marriage to Harriet Darby. Mr. and Mrs. Towner went to Floyd county, Iowa, in 1864, and settled on a farm in Cedar township, where they resided until he retired from the farm and went to Charles City.

Mr. Towner was a man who was interested in the civic and social life of the community as well as in his own affairs. During his active life, he served as school director, justice of the peace, which office he filled from 1875 to 1897, trustee, county supervisor of Floyd county, and representative of Floyd county in the state legislature during the terms above mentioned. As a public servant he was affable and obliging, but rigid in his adherence to the right; therefore be it

Resolved, That in his death the state and county have suffered the loss of a worthy and influential citizen, and that we hereby extend to the bereaved relatives and friends our heartfelt sympathy; and be it further

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be spread upon the Journal of the House, and that the chief clerk transmit an engrossed copy thereof to the family of the deceased.

HON. OLIVER P. ROWLES.

MR. SPEAKER—Your committee appointed to prepare suitable resolutions of respect to the life, character and public services of the late Hon. Oliver P. Rowles, a member of the Ninth General Assembly, beg leave to report the following:

Oliver P. Rowles was born March 25th, 1821, in Bath, New York, and with his parents, David H. and Rebecca Rowles, moved to Covington, Ind., when he was one year old. There he grew to early manhood among the sturdy pioneers, assisting to hew a home in the primeval forest, and later in contract work in building the Wabash canal. His education was secured from the ordinary country school of that day. In 1844 the family again moved westward and located on what in more recent years was known as the Collins farm, two miles south of the present city of Albia, Monroe county, Iowa.

On December 7th, 1845, deceased was united in marriage to Louisa Lower, with whom he continued to live for over sixty-five years, until July 20th, 1911, when she was called from the earthly home. After their marriage they immediately moved to their farm four miles south of Albia, where they continuously resided for more than sixty years. In 1900, they moved to their home at 403 South Clinton street, and continued there until called to the home above.

Four children were born to this happy union: Mrs. Elizabeth Enix, W. A. and J. H. Rowles, and Mrs. Jennie Pierson, all of whom reside in or near Albia, Iowa, except J. H., who lives at Slater, Wyoming.

The subject of this sketch gave his heart to his Saviour in early manhood and became a member of the M. E. church, and when a class was formed at his father's home in 1845 his name is among the charter members, and when the First M. E. church was built in Albia, Iowa, in 1850, he was a member of the first board of trustees and continued to be identified with this church or the one near his country home during the past 68 years.

During his life he was called to many offices of trust, having served as member of the county board for several terms and was chosen to represent Monroe county in the Ninth General Assembly of Iowa.

His every day home life was such that his children rise up and call him blessed, and at the extremely old age of 92 years, 4 months and 15 days, on August 10th, 1913, he peacefully closed his eyes to earthly scenes and passed to his reward on the other shore.

He was honored and loved and respected by his neighbors, far and near, and has held numerous offices of trust in his township, and county and community. Being an early pioneer of Iowa and from Kishkekosh county, now Monroe county, Iowa, he very materially aided in the up-building of a good community of hardy pioneers.

Resolved, That in his death the state and county has lost a worthy and honorable citizen, and we hereby extend to the relatives and friends our tribute of respect; and be it further

Resolved, That these resolutions of respect be printed in the Journal of the House and the chief clerk be directed to forward an engrossed copy to the family of the deceased.

HON. B. F. BROWN.

MR. SPEAKER—Your committee appointed to draft and present resolutions commemorative to the life, character and public services of the Hon. B. F. Brown, late a member of the House of Representatives in the Fifteenth General Assembly, beg leave to submit the following as their report:

B. F. Brown was born in Knox county, Ohio, May 3rd, 1833. When he was twelve years of age, his parents moved to Brooks county, West Virginia, where he grew to manhood and at the close of his career in the public schools he entered Bethany college, founded by Alexander

Campbell of the Christian church, and of which Mr. Campbell was president, and continued in that college for three years, taking the scientific course, and graduating from that institution in 1857. In 1858 Mr. Brown came to Washington county where he engaged in teaching school. He was married to Miss Sarah Kinkade on the 21st day of August, 1860, Rev. Wm. Vanatta officiating. Immediately after their marriage Mr. and Mrs. Brown went back to West Virginia where they remained, engaged in farming until 1873 when they returned to Washington county and this has been their home ever since. Two children were born to them: Charles R. Brown, now at the head of the theological department of Yale university, and Ella M., wife of Seth Thomas of Fort Dodge, Iowa.

Mr. Brown was prominently identified with Washington county business, politics and religious affairs for many years. He was a member of the Methodist church and always took a great interest in the work of the church.

He was for a number of years a director in the Washington County Savings Bank. In politics he was a Republican, and as a member of that party he represented Washington county in the House of Representatives in the state legislature in the Fifteenth General Assembly of Iowa. He was recognized by all as a man of fine intellectual range and was a splendid type of the American citizen as developed through our own institutions. He was a man whose place in his community will never be filled by another for he was an unusual character. He was not one of the many of the same kind, but he was rather a character unique in himself, distinguished from others by a personality peculiarly his own. Those who knew him well will remember him as a man whose presence commanded respect, whose conception of life was big and broad, whose opinions were confirmed but not intolerant and whose everyday manners radiated congeniality, sympathy and good humor.

He died at Biloxi, Mississippi, on March 7th, 1915, at the age of eighty-two years, the remains being brought back to Washington county for burial.

To honor his memory, it is therefore

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be spread upon the Journal of the House, and that the chief clerk be directed to forward an engrossed copy of same to the family of the deceased.

HON. W. H. WEBB.

MR. SPEAKER—Your committee appointed to prepare suitable resolutions commemorating the life and public services of Hon. W. H. Webb, late member of the House of Representatives of the Thirty-fifth General Assembly, submit the following report:

The subject of this memorial was born near Pittsburg, Penn., October 7th, 1849. In 1854 he moved with his parents to Linden, Wisconsin, and in 1874 moved to Clear Lake, Iowa. In 1875 he was married to Miss Eva May Goodwin, who died in July, 1906.

He moved to Spencer, Iowa, in 1877, where he engaged in farming and at the time of his death was manager and owner of a large stock farm two miles north of Spencer and was engaged in breeding Short-horn cattle and Percheron horses.

He received most of his educational training while living in Wisconsin. He was a member of Evening Shade Lodge, No. 312, A. F. & A. M., Clay Chapter, No. 112, Royal Arch Masons, and Azotus Commandery Knights Templar, and the Order of Eastern Star, the Court of Honor and Yeoman.

He was a member of the Methodist Episcopal church at Spencer, Iowa. He acted as chairman of the building committee, and the church was named Grace M. E. Church in honor of his deceased daughter; this was also his mother's name and Mr. Webb felt the church to be largely a memorial to both.

In politics he has been a life long Republican for he believed this party to contain the best elements of good government. He has been elected and has served in various positions of trust and honor and has ever proved loyal to the duties devolved upon him.

In 1912 he was honored by the Republican party with the nomination of representative and was elected a member of the Thirty-fifth General Assembly. In this body Mr. Webb was counted a strong and helpful member. The same quiet and unassuming disposition here brought to him many friends and admirers, and as Speaker E. H. Cunningham of Buena Vista county well said at the funeral, when he told of asking Mr. Webb what committee assignments he wished and Mr. Webb replied: "I am asking no favors for myself, I simply want to have a chance to work for the state and the people who sent me here." We know considerable of Mr. Webb's work in the legislature, and he was a close student of all that was going on, and made a fine record, and has the respect of all the members of this body. He led an active life and was recognized as a gentleman of tried integrity and worth.

WHEREAS, The life and character of the deceased were such as to entitle his memory to the respect and esteem of all who knew him; therefore, be it

Resolved, That the House of Representatives take this occasion to express its appreciation of his character and public services and at this time extend to his son, the only surviving child, also his brother and sister, its sincere sympathy in their sorrow, and be it further resolved:

That a copy of the resolutions be spread upon the Journal of the House and that the chief clerk be instructed to send an enrolled copy to the son of the deceased.

HON. DR. CHARLES MC ALLISTER.

MR. SPEAKER—Your committee appoint to prepare and present suitable resolutions respecting the life, character and public services of the Hon. Dr. Charles McAllister, late member of the House of Representatives of the Seventeenth General Assembly, beg leave to report the following:

The subject of this memorial was born at South Lee, Massachusetts, on February 1, 1840, and died at the place of his birth on Sunday, July 20th, 1913.

He was of Scotch descent, his grandfather, Alexander McAllister, being born in the "Land of Robert Bruce, of Wallace, John Knox, and the immortal covenantors;" and the sturdy Scotch traits were manifest in Dr. McAllister, tempered and modified by the refining influence of the Empire state and New England during two generations. His father, John McAllister, was born in Columbia, New York, and was married to Miss Cynthia Heath, a descendant of one of the old Puritan families. So that he had in his veins the best blood of two great peoples. His father was a traditional Scotch Presbyterian and his mother a Methodist, showing a fitting heredity for the great and useful life which he lived.

Though he came of a long-lived family, his grandfather living to more than ninety years and his father and mother to seventy-four, yet all his father's family, two brothers and one sister had died, and his own family of three sons had all died, leaving him the sole survivor of the family. In his early life his own health was precarious and only the exercise of strong will dominated the body and gave him a long lease of life.

He graduated from Williams college in the class of 1863, and prior to this he had taught school for two winters.

He took up the study of medicine after graduating from Williams college, and in 1865 he graduated from Berkshire Medical College. He practiced for five years at Stockbridge, Massachusetts, with eminent success. In 1870 he removed to Dixon, Illinois, where he remained two years, and in 1872 he came to Spencer, Iowa, where for forty-one years he ministered to the suffering and was kind to everybody.

He was married January 1, 1869, to Miss Mary McAllister, adopted daughter of his uncle, Charles McAllister. Three sons were given to them, all of whom have died, the last, Alexander, dying in 1912, the wife having died in April, 1892. On December 28, 1898, he was again married to Miss Fanny Spencer of Alden, Iowa, who had been a teacher in the Spencer schools, with whom he spent the remaining years of his life happily, and who is now left to sorrow for the one loved and "not lost but gone before".

Dr. McAllister was always interested in politics, and served as a member of the House of Representatives in the Seventeenth General Assembly with honor and distinction. He was a member of the Masonic fraternity, being a Royal Arch Mason, Knight Templar and Shriner. He also held membership in the Odd Fellows and Knights of Pythias. He was a member of the Congregational church as well as a trustee, and he always gave liberally of his time and money to the support of the church.

In a word, he was always a public spirited, upright, honorable man, and,

WHEREAS, The life and character of the deceased were such as to entitle his memory to the respect and esteem of all who knew him, therefore, be it

Resolved, That the House of Representatives take this occasion to express its appreciation of his character and public services, and at this time extend to his widow its sincere sympathy in her sorrow; and

Be It Further Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be spread upon the Journal of the House, and that the chief clerk be directed to send an enrolled copy to the widow of the deceased.

HON. JOHN H. SMITH.

MR. SPEAKER—Your committee appointed to draft and present resolutions commemorating the life, character, and services of the Hon. John H. Smith, late a member of the House of Representatives in the Twenty-first General Assembly, beg leave to submit the following report:—

John H. Smith was born in Delaware, February 21st, 1828, moved with his parents to Michigan in 1832. Was married in 1855 to Elizabeth J. Wilson, came to Iowa and settled in Jasper county in 1857. He taught school in the early days and was by trade a carpenter. When the civil war came, he enlisted in Company K, Twenty-eighth Iowa volunteer infantry, was never in the hospital, and was never at home on furlough. He was a well read man, always keeping himself posted on the current events of the party and church until his death. He was most loyal to the interests of the G. A. R. and was of great assistance to many of the comrades in getting their pension papers prepared, owing to the fact that he kept a careful daily memorandum during his entire service in the army. He was elected sergeant when his company was organized and was promoted to orderly sergeant, which rank he held when mustered out with his regiment in 1865. Early in life he united with the Church of Christ and remained a member all of his life. He was elected as representative of Jasper county to the legislature of Iowa in the Twenty-first General Assembly and was instrumental in getting the bill passed establishing a soldiers' home for Iowa soldiers. The last fifty years of his life were spent on the old homestead where he died. His wife died at the old homestead June 27th, 1895, and he lived with his son Ernest after this until death. Three children survive: F. Aubrey Smith of Marshalltown, Mrs. I. H. Nicodemus of Colfax, and Ernest H. Smith of Ira. One son, Harry, died in infancy, and one daughter, Mrs. Winifred Miller, died in 1899. He retained his mental and physical strength remarkably well. On Wednesday last, he was up and around all day, enjoying his usual good health. About nine o'clock he started to retire but found one side partially paralyzed and he soon lost consciousness. He never rallied from the attack, but gradually grew weaker until the end came on Saturday night, when at ten o'clock he passed away quietly and without apparent suffering.

Therefore, Be It Resolved, That in his death the state has lost a most worthy citizen, a conscientious and honorable man, and we hereby extend our sympathy to the surviving children, who have lost a devoted father, and be it

Resolved, That the chief clerk be instructed to send an engrossed copy of these resolutions to his three surviving children, and that the same be spread upon the Journal of the House.

HON. THOR CLAUS HANSON.

MR. SPEAKER—Your committee appointed to draft and present resolutions commemorating the life, character, and services of the Hon. Thor Claus Hanson, late a member of the House of Representatives in the Thirty-second and Thirty-third General Assemblies, beg leave to submit the following report:

Mr. Hanson was born in Perry, Dane county, Wisconsin, June 15, 1859, of the parents of Hans and Guri Thoreson Toso. At the age of 10, in 1869, he moved with his parents to Estherville, Emmet county, Iowa. He received his education in the rural schools of that county and Luther college, Decorah, Iowa, which institution he attended from 1875 to 1878, graduating from the normal course with good grades. He was forced to quit school the following year on account of poor eyes. The next eight years he taught in the public schools of Iowa, having taught in Bode, Thor and Senaca.

On March 1, 1885, he was married to Miss Julia Jenson of Senaca, Iowa, on the Peter Jenson place. To this union seven children were born, Minnie, Joseph, George, Lalla, Thoa, Helmer and Esther, who with their mother are left to mourn his loss.

In 1886, Mr. Hanson entered the land business, working for the Frederickson Land Company of St. Paul. From 1886 to 1889 he lived at Benson, Minnesota; he personally residing one winter in St. Paul, and in Chicago about seven weeks.

In 1889, he received a call to teach in the preparatory department of Luther college, but declined the call. The same year he returned from Benson, Minnesota, to Bode, and entered the mercantile business with J. N. Johnson.

In 1892 he entered the employ of Dennis & Son, bankers, and was affiliated with the State Bank of Bode until the same was dissolved in 1913, serving in the capacity of cashier and director.

In 1914, he was elected president of the State Savings Bank, which position he held until his death. He was also president of the Rural Union Telephone Company.

He was the first mayor of Bode, and also held the office in 1912 and 1913. For thirteen years he served as one of the school directors.

In 1906, he was elected representative to the Iowa legislature and served as the representative of Humboldt county in the Thirty-second and Thirty-third General Assemblies. In the year 1913 he was talked of as a candidate for congress from the Tenth congressional district of Iowa, but on account of his health and love for home declined to enter the race. In politics he was always a republican and took an active part, having served as chairman of the republican county central committee.

From 1910 on, he served as a member of the church council of the Norwegian Lutheran Synod Church of America, and from 1912 on, he served as a member of the board of visitors of Luther college. He was a staunch Lutheran and was always an active attendant in the church work and died as he had lived in its faith.

Mr. Hanson died at his home in Bode on Monday morning, February 8, 1915, of anemia, at the age of 55 years, 7 months and 24 days, after a sickness of thirteen months of which the last five weeks were passed in bed.

Although Mr. Hanson's death was not unexpected it nevertheless came as a shock and we all knew that a good man and kind father had passed to that realm from which no traveler returns. Therefore, be it

Resolved, That in his death the state has lost a most worthy citizen, a conscientious and an honorable man, and we hereby extend our sympathy to the surviving family who have lost a devoted husband and father, and be it further

Resolved, That the chief clerk is instructed to send an engrossed copy of these resolutions to the surviving wife and family, and that the same be spread upon the Journal of the House.

HON. M. F. LEROY.

MR. SPEAKER—Your committee, appointed to prepare resolutions commemorating the life, character and public service of the Hon. M. F. LeRoy of Manchester, Delaware county, late a member of the House of the Thirty-fifth General Assembly, beg leave to submit the following report:

M. F. LeRoy was born in Manchester, Indiana, January 16, 1850, and died at Hinsdale, Illinois, February 21, 1914, after an illness of less than one week's duration. The family moved to Morris, Illinois, and here Mr. LeRoy spent his boyhood years and received a high school education. He, afterwards, attended Clarke's seminary of Aurora, Illinois, and completed his collegiate education at Moore's Hill college, Indiana, where he graduated with the degree of bachelor of science. In the spring of 1870, he was graduated from the State University of Iowa with the degree of bachelor of laws.

In 1873, he moved to Manchester, Iowa, and formed a law partnership with the Hon. Charles E. Bronson and in 1884 the firm became Bronson, Carr & LeRoy. In 1890, he became cashier of the First National Bank of Manchester and was made president of the same after the death of A. R. Loomis, which position he held until the time of his death. June 2, 1874, Mr. LeRoy was united in marriage with Miss Jennie Loomis and to this union were born two daughters and one son.

Mr. LeRoy had long been prominently and helpfully identified with the business, social, religious and educational interests of Manchester. He was for two years mayor, his administration being without doubt the most progressive and beneficial the city has ever enjoyed. He gave long and faithful service as a member of the school board, was active in the organization of the Manchester and Oneida Railway Company, and was allied with many of the important concerns financed with local capital. In 1912, he was elected representative from Delaware county in the general assembly, and for some time had held a position on the executive committee of the Fraternal Union of America, a flourishing insurance society, with headquarters at Denver. In all of these relations, his service was unstinted and unselfish.

Mr. LeRoy was a member of the various Masonic orders, both the York and Scottish rites, and was a past eminent commander of Nazareth commandery, No. 33, Knights of Templar. He was also affiliated with Hyperion lodge, No. 186, K. of P., and had long been a leader in Iowa Odd Fellow circles, having been honored by the post of commander of the Patriarchs Militant, the highest position in the gift of the order. In earlier life he was a communicant of the Methodist Episcopal church, later transferring his membership to the Congregational society.

Personally, Mr. LeRoy was a helper of the unfortunate and distressed, who gave unsparingly and without expectation of return. A record of his unseen kindnesses would tell the story of renewed courage and hope to many a man who came to him in an hour of need and found, not merely temporary aid, but lasting friendship, Therefore, Be It Resolved, That in the death of M. F. LeRoy, the state and county in which he resided lost a worthy and upright citizen and an honorable man and we hereby extend to the bereaved family and friends our sincere sympathy.

And Be It Further Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be printed in the Journal of the House and that the chief clerk of the House be directed to forward an engrossed copy of the same to the wife and family of the deceased.

HON. DR. WILLIAM W. HAWK.

MR. SPEAKER—Your committee appointed to draft and present resolutions commemorating the life, character, and services of the Honorable Dr. William W. Hawk, late a member of the House of Representatives in the Twenty-eighth and Twenty-ninth General Assemblies, beg leave to submit the following report:

Dr. William W. Hawk was born in Ohio, November 26, 1843, and died at the home of his daughter, Nellie (Mrs. O. H. Witmer), in Newton, September 15, 1914.

In 1870 he married Miss Eleanor J. Johnson, who died in February, 1913. To them two children were born,—Charles, who died in 1895, and Nellie, who survives him. He is survived by three brothers, Dr. J. W. of Green River, Wyoming; Z. T. of Denison, Iowa, and J. T. of What Cheer, Iowa, and three sisters, Mrs. Elizabeth Maleby, of Los Angeles, Cal.; Mrs. Emma H. Dugger, and Mrs. Susie B. Fair, both of Denver, Colo., and by four grandchildren.

He lived a beautiful and useful life, full to the overflowing with activity in every direction. Coming to Iowa with his parents when quite young, he worked hard to secure an education and fit himself for his life's work. At the age of eighteen he heard the call of his country and enlisted in Co. E, 33d Iowa Inf. He served three years and during those years showed the spirit of a good soldier and a true patriot.

All his life he was a lover of his flag and with his beloved wife did much to fasten the spirit of patriotism among the younger people. He was a faithful member of the Grand Army, and one of the most touching sights at his funeral was the escort of his old comrades which met his body at the station, at Colfax, accompanying it to the church and afterwards to the cemetery. Returning from the war, he taught school, thus securing funds with which to pursue his professional studies. He entered the College of Physicians and Surgeons in Keokuk, and graduated after a full course. He then began a life of beneficence and tender ministry which proved a blessing and help to all with whom he came in contact. He settled in Jasper county and in 1876 commenced his career. For forty years he was considered the friend and physician of almost the whole northern part of the county and there are hundreds who remember him as a skillful and conscientious physician. He attained eminence in his profession and won a high place in the regard of his fellow practitioners. In 1890, he settled in Colfax and took his place as a leading citizen and physician there. He was a friend of all and those who knew him as their doctor knew him also as their warm and trusted friend. Old and young turned to him for counsel and help, and he never failed to give himself freely to those who needed his aid. He widened his activities by serving his state in the legislature, serving for two terms, the twenty-eighth and twenty-ninth terms of the General Assembly.

He was a member of the Masonic lodge from early manhood. For five and a half years he was postmaster at Colfax and discharged his duties with the same integrity and ability which had been among his characteristics. In 1913 he resigned owing to failing health, being released in July of that year. He went west in search of improvement and with his sister, Mrs. Dugger, traveled in Colorado, Wyoming, California, and Arizona. He gained but little benefit from this change and in May of last year returned to Jasper county, making his home with his daughter in Newton. Here for five months he lived a quiet and patient life, suffering greatly, but never complaining. He was so quiet and kind, that none would think of him as a great sufferer, unless they were acquainted with the fact that a chronic asthma and bronchitis robbed him of health and rest. His presence was always like sunshine, and his strong and lovely character came to its best during these months of trial and suffering.

He was taken seriously ill on the 13th of September and passed away late at night on the 15th.

A short and impressive funeral service was conducted by Dr. G. C. Williams at the home at 9 o'clock Friday morning. Miss Miles sang beautifully Tennyson's "Crossing the Bar."

The funeral party then went to Colfax at 10:10 where at 2 o'clock the final services were held in the Christian church conducted by Rev. LeRoy Munyon and Dr. G. C. Williams, both paying high tribute to the life and work of Dr. Hawk. The Grand Army acted as escort to the church and from there to the cemetery where enshrouded with Old Glory, he was tenderly laid to rest beside his beloved wife and son.

"Good night, beloved Father, Brother, Friend,

May you keep your dear love for us as we will ever keep ours for thee,
And in some brighter clime

Tell us 'Good Morning.'"

Therefore, Be It Resolved, That in his death the state has lost a most worthy citizen, a conscientious and honorable man, and we hereby extend our sympathy to his only beloved daughter, who has lost a devoted father, and be it Further Resolved, That the chief clerk be instructed to send an engrossed copy of these resolutions to her, and that the same be spread upon the Journal of the House.

HON. HENRY CLAY CALDWELL.

MR. SPEAKER—Your committee appointed to draft resolutions commemorating the life, character and public services of the Hon. Henry Clay Caldwell, of Van Buren county, member of the House in the Eighth General Assembly, beg leave to report the following memorial:

Another soldier of the republic passed from earth on the 15th day of February, 1915. It was then that Col. Henry Clay Caldwell, who represented the county of Van Buren in the Eighth General Assembly, departed this life at Los Angeles, Calif. Born in the county of Marshall, Virginia (now West Virginia), September 4, 1832, he came with his father's family to the Black Hawk Purchase in 1836, locating at what is now Bentonsport and removing a year or more later to a farm, where the boy worked, attending school, when practicable, in the winter. Being quite studious he began at the age of 16 to read law, entering for that purpose the office of Wright and Knapp at Keosauqua, two of the most eminent of Iowa's lawyers. In 1851 he was admitted to the bar and at the age of 24 was chosen prosecuting attorney of the county. In 1859 he was elected to the General Assembly, taking his seat at the same time that Kirkwood became governor. In that body he was made chairman of the judiciary committee, an especially important committee at that time, because it was by that General Assembly that the codes of civil and criminal practice were revised. In the following year Mr. Caldwell attended the extra session summoned at the outbreak of the war. Here, as at the former session, he was influential as much because of his agreeable manner as of his high order of ability. In August of the year 1861 he was made major of the Third Iowa Cavalry, which he had aided Senator Bussey in recruiting. Much of the time during the first year of his service he was in command of a detachment of the Third regiment, operating in the state of Missouri. In September, 1862, Major Caldwell was made lieutenant colonel of the regiment. That winter for much of the time, although only a lieutenant colonel, he commanded a brigade. Col. Caldwell distinguished himself in the Little Rock campaign. At the head of his command, he was the first to enter the capital of that state. On the 4th of May he was made colonel of the regiment but not till after he had been recommended by his superior officers for an appointment as brigadier-general and would in all probability have been raised to that rank, but for another appointment that came a month after he reached the colonelcy. It was then that President Lincoln made him judge of the United States District Court for the district of Arkansas. It is said of him that owing only to the earnest urgency of the loyal people of Arkansas he accepted the judgeship, having the star of a brigadier in view. His superior officer, Gen. Davidson, reporting the capture of Little Rock, said this of the soldier:

"Lieut.-Col. Caldwell, whose untiring devotion and energy never flagged during night nor day, deserves, for his gallantry and varied accomplishments as a cavalry officer, promotion to the rank of a general officer."

Into the new office, and it was indeed much of a new office, although there had been former judges for more than a score of years, the docket was crowded with cases involving many difficult questions naturally arising because of the war. His court was one of the first in all the seceding states to pass upon these questions, and all his rulings with a single exception, were sustained by the Supreme Court. Of his manner of dispatching business in that court, much has been said in praise, and many of his rulings have been approvingly cited. In 1880 President Harrison made him one of the judges of the then new Circuit Court of Appeals.

Judge Caldwell identified himself loyally with the people where his duties lay, while at all times not forgetting that he was a judge of a court of the United States. As a member of the Arkansas Bar Association, he was largely instrumental in introducing many legal reforms in the laws of the state. He is said to have borne a prominent part in securing the rights of married women and in substituting code pleadings for the cumbrous forms of the common law. The state of Iowa may well do honor to one who, whether on the field of armed forces, or in more peaceful ways, did honor to the state where his early manhood was spent.

Col. Caldwell's wife, to whom he was united in marriage in 1853, was Miss Hattie Benton, a niece of Hon. George G. Wright, one of the foremost of Iowa jurists. In the year 1903 Judge Caldwell retired from the bench, after an exceptionally long career in that capacity. His residence after that time was in the state of California.

HON. JEDEDIAH LAKE.

MR. SPEAKER—Your committee appointed to prepare resolutions commemorating the life, character and public services of the Hon. Jedediah Lake, of Buchanan county, beg leave to submit the following report:

Colonel Jedediah Lake was born in Cortland county, New York, November 18, 1830, and passed away at his home, Independence, Iowa, June 7, 1914.

His parents were Jedediah Lake and Patience (Church) Lake, both of whom were descended from colonial and revolutionary ancestry.

He was educated in New York Central College and Homer Academy, where he laid a broad foundation for his life's work, specializing in mathematics, English, grammar and German.

In 1855, he decided to come west to Des Moines, but stopped at Independence, where he soon found employment, and to the time of his death continued to make it his home.

In 1859 he was admitted to the bar with flattering recommendations from the examining board, and continued the successful practice of law until a few weeks before his death.

In the fall of 1861, he was elected to the legislature, where he served his state with distinction. In June of the same year, Colonel Lake was united in marriage with Miss Sarah E. Meyer. This union was blessed with three children, Jarvis M., who died in 1870; Rush C., a prominent lawyer of Kansas City, and Miss Harriet I. Lake, of Independence, Iowa, well known and prominent in women's club circles.

The civil war having broken out, he enlisted the following summer in a company, being recruited by Capt. Noble, and was elected first lieutenant. A little later, he was commissioned lieutenant colonel of the Twenty-seventh Iowa by Governor Kirkwood. He served with his regiment through the war and when the war ended was its colonel. At the close of the war he returned to Independence and resumed the practice of law and was honored by his fellow citizens in many ways, being called upon by them to fill various offices of trust and responsibility.

Colonel Lake was eminently successful in his profession, and as a pioneer resident and attorney, he played a leading part in the development of Independence and Buchanan county.

In 1878 the firm of Lake and Harmon was retained to defend a large number of actions brought against residents of Iowa by the owners of a patent known as the "Driven well patent". These actions were brought in the circuit court of the United States from the district of Iowa, the defendants in most of them being farmers who were sued for royalties by the owners of the patent. Col. Lake took charge of the defense in this extensive litigation, there being about one hundred and fifty actions against residents in Buchanan and adjoining counties. The trial in the federal court resulted in a victory for the defendants. The plaintiffs appealed the cases to the supreme court of the United States, which affirmed the judgment of the lower court, relieving the defendants of any liability. This important litigation lasted nine years and was of national importance, because actions had been brought in many states.

The General Assembly of Iowa, appreciating Col. Lake's efforts and ability in this important litigation, adopted the following joint resolution:

WHEREAS, in 1878 Col. Jed Lake was employed by the farmers of Buchanan, Blackhawk, and several other counties to defend them in suits that had been commenced in the United States circuit court for infringing the patent commonly known as the "Driven well patent", and

WHEREAS, said Lake pursued the defense of said cases with great vigor and indomitable energy, until by his labor and skillful presentation of the case, the United States supreme court in November, 1887, held the patent invalid and,

WHEREAS, by said decision the people of the state of Iowa have been saved more than a million dollars and the people of the United States more than two million dollars.

Therefore, Resolved by the General Assembly of the State of Iowa, that the gratitude and thanks of the people of Iowa are due to Col. Jed Lake for his skill, ability and perseverance in said cases; and the thanks of the General Assembly of the State of Iowa are hereby tendered to Col. Jed Lake for his labor in behalf of the people of the state.

Resolved: That a duly engrossed copy of these resolutions, signed by the proper officers of the Senate and House of Representatives and the governor and secretary of state, with the great seal affixed, be presented to Col. Jed Lake, as a token of our appreciation of his labors.

Resolved, That this record be spread on the Journal of this body and that an engrossed copy hereof be transmitted to his bereaved family with the assurance of the high appreciation of the House of Representatives of this sturdy pioneer of Iowa statesmanship.

HON. JOHN PARKER.

MR. SPEAKER—Your committee appointed to prepare and present suitable resolutions respecting the life, character and public services of the Hon. John Parker, who represented Mills county in the Twenty-sixth and Twenty-seventh General Assemblies, beg leave to report the following:

The Hon. John Parker, who represented Mills county in the House in the Twenty-sixth and Twenty-seventh General Assemblies, died at his home in Malvern, Iowa, April 7, 1915, aged seventy-seven years, three months and twenty days.

Mr. Parker was born at Barrowby, Lincolnshire, England, December 18, 1837. He graduated from the schools at the tender age of seven years, and went out into the field to help in the support of the family. Thus his opportunities for acquiring an education were limited to rare fragments of time which he wisely made the most of; finding in them in the course of the years, twelve full baskets of golden knowledge. In the spring of 1857, he decided to come to the land of opportunities, settling in Marion county, Ohio. On September 18, 1861, he was united in marriage to Mary Louisa Johnson. He was converted at the age of thirty-two and united with the Methodist Episcopal church, of which he remained an earnest influential member until the time of his passing away.

Mr. Parker was one of Mills county's best and most representative men. He came there in 1867, locating a few years later on his fine farm east of Silver City, where he made his home until a couple of years ago. He was a progressive and up-to-date farmer and always took an active part in farmers' institutes and other means of elevating the farming business, and he was likewise a very successful farmer and stockman.

With all his busy life he never neglected his church and the higher things in life for which it stood. He was strong in Sunday school work and an active member of the county association, and spent freely of his time and money advancing this great work.

Politically he was a life-long republican and while he was staunch for the principles he believed right, he was always fair-minded with his opponents and always held their respect and honor. He was twice elected a member of the state legislature from his county and served his constituents honorably and well, and was recognized as one of the strong conservative members of the House.

We need not speak of his potential influence upon men from an industrial, political, social or spiritual standpoint. Whether men could agree with him or not, they at least believed in him. They never were obliged to question in their minds as to where to find him on any moral issue; they knew where he stood. His life has spoken; the impress for good will live.

Resolved, That the House of Representatives, while mourning the loss of such a man, cannot but feel a measure of gratification that the moral interests of the state have had the helpful constructive work of one who, in the words of another, always was sure he was right and then went ahead.

Resolved, That this memorial be entered on the Journal of this House as an expression of our appreciation and of Iowa, for one who was of so much service to her moral interests and that a copy hereof, duly attested, be transmitted to the family of Mr. Parker.

HON. BRADFORD B. LANE.

Bradford B. Lane, who represented the county of Polk in the Twenty-third and Twenty-fourth General Assemblies, died at his home in the township of Washington, Polk county, July 16, 1913.

Mr. Lane was a native of the province of Ontario, where he was born February 5, 1838. He was the youngest of the twelve children of Nathan and Mary (Moot) Lane. His father was of English descent, and his mother, who was a native of the state of New York, was of German origin. Beginning his school life in his native town, he afterwards attended a seminary in the county of Schoharie, in New York. Intermittently teaching and attending seminary, the next few years were spent. Following a brief experience in the state of Tennessee young Lane settled in the county of Hamilton, Illinois. There also he taught school. Later, he attended Oberlin College through the sophomore year.

Returning to his native country, he spent a few more years as a teacher. He then came to Iowa, settling at first in the county of Warren. In 1867 he was ordained to the gospel ministry in the Methodist Episcopal church, and two years later he was made an elder.

In 1872 he settled on a farm in the township of Washington, Polk county, where he connected his labors on the soil with those of the pulpit, until failing health compelled him to adhere to the farm.

In 1889 he was elected a member of the Twenty-third General Assembly. His career in that body began with a unique experience. It has been the custom of one of the members from the county of Polk to call the House to order at the beginning of the session. Mr. Lane essayed to attend to that duty, which he did, and then he occupied the chair for two weeks.

Day after day for all that time the Journal reads at the beginning, "Mr. Lane in the chair." On January 27, 1890, a temporary speaker was chosen, and Mr. Lane got heartfelt thanks for the manner in which he discharged the duties thus temporarily and unexpectedly falling to him to perform. The experienced legislator, then as now, the editor of the Capital, said of Mr. Lane's work in that capacity, "How well the duties thus . . . assumed were performed is a matter of common fame. The member from Polk county, as a presiding officer, was in fact an agreeable surprise. Few men, however well versed in parliamentary law, would have more happily presided over the House during so stormy a period. The Capital only voices the general sentiment of the community when it expressed the wish that the metropolitan county, and the capital city of the state may always be so well represented in the general assembly as they have been by Bradford B. Lane."

Mr. Lane was very properly made chairman of the committee on rules, and a member of that on ways and means, as well as others.

In the session of 1892 he was chairman of the ways and means committee, and a member of several others.

After his retirement Mr. Lane was a frequent contributor to public journals on leading questions before the people, taking quite advanced positions in some instances. Sincerity and fairness were always marked characteristics of the man.

On October 20, 1863, Mr. Lane was united in marriage with Miss Nannie Brown, of Ohio, who with their younger son, Bismark, preceded the husband and father from life on earth. A son, Grapho Lane, and a daughter, Sappho, wife of Andrew McCauley, and a graduate of the College of Physicians and Surgeons at Des Moines, live at Maxwell, Story county.

In memory of this worthy representative of the people, the House of Representatives directs that this memorial be entered upon its Journal, and a copy thereof be sent his family.

HON. JOHN FLETCHER LACEY.

John Fletcher Lacey was born in what is now the state of West Virginia, May 4, 1841. With his father's family he came to Oskaloosa in the year 1855, in which city he made his home up to the time of his death.

After attending select school he entered the law office of Sam'l A. Rice, who afterward became attorney general of Iowa. Before finishing his law studies the war of the rebellion broke out and he promptly enlisted in the Third Iowa infantry. After the battle of Blue Mills, in which he participated, he was discharged from the service to re-enter in the Thirty-third Iowa regiment of which his former instructor in law was colonel. He was made major of the regiment and served on the staff of General Steele in the campaign against Mobile and was engaged in several battles. In September, 1865, he was mustered out with the rank of brevet major.

He immediately entered into the practice of law in which he continued up to the time of his death. He took rank among the most eminent in the profession. He was engaged in many of the most important cases in the courts of Iowa and in the federal courts, and was author of "Lacey's Digest of Railway Cases" which became a text book in nearly every state in the union. He was most untiring in the work of his profession and never abandoned a case in which he believed he was right until obtaining the judgment of the highest courts.

He was elected to the general assembly in the year 1869 and afterward was elected a member of the Fifty-first congress from the Sixth district of Iowa. With the exception of one term he continued to represent his district in the national legislature until the year 1907. He immediately took high rank in the national house of representatives, ranking with the acknowledged leaders of that body.

He died at his home in Oskaloosa on the thirtieth day of September, 1913, a man of unquestioned integrity and acknowledged ability. He enjoyed the confidence and esteem of his friends and neighbors and was on familiar terms with the leading statesmen of this country. His death has deprived the state of a most estimable citizen, a distinguished lawyer and statesman.

Resolved, That this House take this occasion to express its high regard of his character and public service and extend to his family their sincere sympathy in their sorrow; and be it further

Resolved, That a copy of this resolution be entered upon the Journal of the House and an engrossed copy be sent to the family of the deceased.
