SENATE RULES.ORDER OF DAILY BUSINESS.

After the journal is read, the following order shall govern:

1. Presentation of petitions or memorials.
2. Introduction of bills.
3. Resolutions.
4. Communications on the President's table.
5. Reports of Standing Committees, in the order in which they stand in the rules, except the Committee on Engrossed and Enrolled Bills.
6. Reports of Select Committees.
7. Third reading of bills.
8. Bills, other matters, and unfinished business before the Senate.
9. General orders of the day.

STANDING RULES.

1. The President shall take the chair at the hour to which the Senate is adjourned, and call the members to order; and if a quorum be present, he shall direct the journals of the preceding day to be read, and mistakes, if any, corrected. He shall preserve order and decorum, and decide all questions of order, subject to an appeal to the Senate. He shall appoint all committees, unless otherwise especially ordered.

2. One-fourth of the members may have a call of the Senate, and absent members sent for.

3. When the vote is taken viva voce, questions shall be distinctly put in this form, viz: "As many as are of the opinion (as the case may be) say 'aye.'" And after the affirmative voice is expressed: "as many as are of the contrary opinion, say 'no.'" If the President doubt, or a division be called for, the Senate shall divide - those in the affirmative of the question shall first rise from their seats, and afterwards those in the negative.

4. All motions (except to adjourn, postpone, or commit) shall be reduced to writing, if required by any member of the Senate. Any motion may be withdrawn by the mover, before it is amended by the Senate.

5. Every member present when a question is put shall vote, unless he shall, for special cause, be excused by a vote of the Senate; but no member shall vote on any question in the event of which he is directly and personally interested, or in any case where he was not present when his name was called in the taking of the vote.

6. When a member is about to speak in debate, or deliver any matter to the Senate, he shall rise from his seat and respectfully address himself to Mr. President, and shall confine himself to the question under debate, avoid personalities, and the imputation of improper motives.

7. When a question is under debate, no motion shall be received but to adjourn, to lay on the table, for the previous question, to postpone to a day certain, to commit or amend, to postpone indefinitely; which several motions shall have precedence in the order in which they are named; and no motion to postpone to a day certain, to commit, or to postpone indefinitely, being decided, shall be again allowed on the same day, and at the same stage of the bill or proposition.

8. The previous question shall be in this form: "Shall the main question be now put?" It shall only be admitted when demanded by a majority of the members present, and its effect shall be to put an end to all debate, and bring the Senate to a direct vote upon amendments reported by a committee, if any; then upon pending amendments, and then upon the main question.

9. A motion to adjourn, to lay on the table, and for the previous question, shall be decided without debate, and all incidental questions of order arising after a motion is made for the previous question, and pending such motion, shall be decided—whether an appeal or otherwise—without debate.

10. Any member may call for a division of a question, which shall be divided, if it comprehends propositions in substance so distinct that one being taken away substantive propositions shall remain for the decision of the Senate. A motion to strike out and insert shall be deemed indivisible; but a motion to strike out being lost, shall preclude neither amendments nor a motion to strike out and insert.

11. Every bill shall be introduced on the report of a committee, or by leave. Every bill shall receive three several readings previous to its passage; but no bill shall have its second and third readings on the same day, without a suspension of this rule; and every bill shall express in its title the object of the bill.

12. The first reading of a bill shall be for information, and if objection be made to it, the question shall be, "Shall the bill be rejected?" If no objection be made, or the question to reject be lost, the bill shall go to its second reading without further question.

13. Upon the second reading of a bill or joint resolution, the President shall state it as ready for amendment, commitment, or engrossment, and if committed, then the question shall be, whether to a select, or standing committee, or a committee of the whole. If to a committee of the whole, the Senate shall determine on what day. But if the bill be ordered to be engrossed, it shall be in order for its third reading at any time after that day. No bill or joint resolution shall be committed or amended until it shall have been twice read.

14. When a question is lost on engrossing a bill for a third reading on a particular day, it shall not preclude a question to engross it for a third reading on a different day. After a third reading of a bill or joint resolution, no amendment (except to fill blanks), shall be received, except by unanimous consent of the members present; and the vote on its final passage shall be immediately taken without debate.

15. A bill or joint resolution may be committed at any time previous to its third reading.

16. In filling blanks, the largest sum and longest time shall be first put.

17. When a motion or question has been decided in the affirmative or negative, any member having voted with the majority may move a reconsideration of the same, or on the next business day.

18. Before acting on executive business, the Senate Chamber shall be cleared, by direction of the President, of all persons except members, the Secretary, and Sergeant-at-Arms; the members enjoined to observe secrecy, and the Secretary and Sergeant-at-Arms to be sworn.

19. No standing rule or order of the Senate shall be rescinded or suspended, unless by a vote of two-thirds of the members present, except an order fixing the hour to which the Senate shall stand adjourned.

20. The rules of parliamentary practice comprised in Cushing's Manual, shall govern the Senate in all cases to which they are applicable, and in which they are not inconsistent with the standing rules or orders of the Senate, and Joint Rules of the Senate and House of Representatives.

21. The Senate shall, at its pleasure, elect a President pro tem., who shall hold his office during the remaining portion of the time for which the President was elected; and when the President shall from any cause be absent, the President pro tem. shall preside, except when the chair is filled by appointment by the President.

22. On the return of a bill from the House, with an amendment, it shall be placed with the third reading of bills, unless the Senate shall otherwise order. On the question of adopting the amendment the vote shall be taken as on the final passage of the bill; and if the amendment be adopted by a constitutional majority, no further vote is necessary.

23. It is in order for the Committee on Engrossed and Enrolled Bills, and on Printing, to report at any time, when no member is addressing the Senate.

24. When any order of the day is not proceeded with on the day assigned, it shall stand as a general order on each succeeding day until disposed of, unless otherwise ordered, but its consideration cannot be moved until that order of business is reached, when it shall be taken up in the order of its file.

25. When the pending question is interrupted by a "Special Order" it shall, upon the disposal of the special order, be before the Senate in the same stage as if it had not been so interrupted.

26. A motion to print any paper presented to the Senate may, on motion, be referred to the Committee on Printing, whose duty it shall be to report on the propriety of printing, and that it shall be in order for such committee to report as provided in Rule 23.

27. Committees are permitted to employ clerks by the majority vote of the whole committee. The clerk shall be selected by such vote, and in like manner may be discharged for inefficiency or when the services of the clerk become unnecessary.

28 Admission to the floor of the Senate Chamber shall be granted by the door-keeper to the Governor and his Private Secretary, members and officers of the House of Representatives, officers of State and their deputies, Judges of the several Courts, Capitol Commissioners, ex-members of the Legislature, ex-officers of State, and the regular reporters of the Senate and clerks of committees. No persons, except those herein specified, shall be admitted, except upon the special permission of the President of the Senate, or of a member of the Senate. And no person shall be permitted by members, or otherwise, to come upon the floor of the Senate to solicit or influence Senators in legislation or their action; or to sell any article or to solicit subscriptions.

29. It shall be the duty of the Sergeant-at-Arms to attend the Senate during its sittings; to aid in the enforcement of order, under the direction of the President of the Senate; to execute the commands of the Senate from time to time, together with all such process, issued by authority thereof, as shall be directed to him by the presiding officer; and to have charge of the messengers of the Senate, and see that they severally perform their respective duties.

30. That when an adjournment has been ordered by a vote of the Senate, and before the adjournment is declared by the President of the Senate, it shall be in order for the chairmen of the several standing committees to announce in open Senate the time and place of meeting of their respective committees.

31. All bills introduced shall be printed, unless otherwise ordered by the Senate, and committees may order to be printed any substitutes for bills reported by them.

RULES OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

DUTY OF THE SPEAKER.

1. He shall take the chair every day precisely at the hour to which the House shall have adjourned on the preceding day; shall immediately call the members to order, and on the appearance of a quorum shall cause the journal of the preceding day to be read.

2. He shall preserve order and decorum, and speak to points of order in preference to other members, rising from his seat for that purpose; and he shall decide questions of order, subject to an appeal to the House by any two members.

3. He shall rise to put a question, but may state it sitting.

4. Questions shall be distinctly put in this form, to-wit: "As many as are of the opinion that (as the question may be) say 'aye,'" and after the affirmative voice is expressed, "As many as are of the contrary opinion, say 'no'" If the Speaker doubts, or a division be called for, the House shall be divided. Those in the affirmative of the question shall first rise from their seats, and afterwards those in the negative.

5. The Speaker shall have a right to name any member to perform the duties of the chair, but such substitution shall not extend beyond an adjournment, except that in case of the absence of the regular Speaker, the House may proceed to elect a Speaker pro tem., whose acts shall have the same validity as those of the Speaker.

6. All committees shall be appointed by the Speaker, unless otherwise specially directed by the House.

7. In all cases of a call of the yeas and nays, the Speaker shall vote; in other cases he shall not be required to vote unless the House is equally divided, or unless his vote, if given to the minority, will make the division equal, and in case of such equal division the question shall be lost.

8. All acts, addresses, and joint resolutions, shall be signed by the Speaker, and all writs, warrants and subpoenas, issued by order of the House, shall be under his hand and attested by the Clerk

In case of any disturbance or disorderly conduct in the lobby, the Speaker or Chairman of the Committee of the Whole House shall have the power to have the same cleared.

ORDER OF BUSINESS OF THE DAY.

10. After the journal is read, the following order shall govern:

1. Business pending at the last previous adjournment.

2. Petitions or remonstrances to be offered.

3. Reports of Committees:

Ways and Means.

Judiciary.

Agriculture.

Railroads.

Appropriations.

Schools.

Cities and Towns.

Retrenchment and Reform.

Constitutional Amendments.

Claims.

Compensation of Public Officers.

Banks and Banking.

Insurance.

County and Township Organization.

Roads and Highways.

Other Committees.

4. Resolutions laid over under Rule 34.
5. Bills to be introduced.
6. Resolutions.
7. Messages and communications on the Speaker's table.
8. Bills and resolutions read a second time.
9. Bills on their passage.
10. Reports in possession of the House, which offer grounds for a bill, are to be taken up in order that the bill may be ordered in.
11. On and after the 10th day of February of each regular session, bills and joint resolutions, which have been read the second time and engrossed, shall be taken up in their proper order at three o'clock in the afternoon of each session, and put upon their passage.

OF DECORUM AND DEBATE.

11. When any member is about to speak in debate, or deliver any matter to the House, he shall rise from his seat and respectfully address himself to the presiding officer by his title, saying, "Mr. Speaker," and shall not proceed until he shall be recognized by the Chair, and shall confine himself to the question under debate, and shall avoid personalities.

12. When any member in speaking, or otherwise, transgresses the rules of the House, the Speaker shall, or any member may, call him to order; in which case, the member so called to order shall immediately sit down, but may be permitted with leave of the House, to explain; and the House shall, if appealed to, decide the case, but without debate. If there be no appeal, the decision of the Chair shall be submitted to; if the decision be in favor of the member so called to order, he is at liberty to proceed. If the case requires it, he shall be liable to the censure of the House.

13. When two or more members happen to rise at once, the Speaker shall designate the member entitled to speak.

14. No member shall speak more than once on the same question without leave of the House, nor more than twice until every member choosing to speak shall have spoken.

15. While the Speaker is putting any question, or addressing the House, none shall walk out or across the House, or, when a member is speaking, shall entertain private discourse, nor, while a member is speaking, pass between him and the Chair.

16. No member shall vote on any question in the event of which he is personally interested; nor in case where he was not present when the question was put, unless the Speaker again states the question.

17. Upon a division and count of the House on any question, no member without the bar shall be counted.

18. Every member who shall be in the House when the question is put shall give his vote, unless the House, for special reasons, shall excuse him; but such member must asked to be excused before commencing to take the vote on the main question.

19. When a motion is made and seconded, it shall be stated by the Speaker; or, being in writing, it shall be handed to the Chair and read aloud by the Clerk before debated.

20. Every motion, except subsidiary or incidental motions, shall be reduced to writing if the Speaker or any member desires it, but this exception shall not apply to motions to amend.

21. All bills, resolutions, petitions, memorials, or other papers, shall be accompanied by the name of the member presenting the same, and also the name of the county.

22. After a motion is stated by the Speaker, or read by the Clerk, it shall be deemed to be in possession of the House, but may be withdrawn by leave of the House.

23. When a question is under debate no motion shall be received but to adjourn; to lie on the table; for the previous question; to postpone to a day certain; to commit or amend; to postpone indefinitely; which several motions shall have precedence in the order in which they are arranged, and no motion to postpone to a day certain, to commit or postpone indefinitely, being decided, shall again be allowed on the same day, and at the same stage of the bill or proposition. A motion to strike out the enacting words of a bill shall have precedence of a motion to amend, and, if carried, shall be considered equivalent to its rejection.

24. When a resolution shall be offered, or a motion made to refer any subject, and different committees shall be proposed, the question shall be taken in the following order: The Committee of the Whole House; a Standing Committee; a Select Committee.

25. A motion to adjourn shall always be in order, except when a member is speaking, or the House voting.

26. The previous question shall always be in this form: "Shall the main question now be put?" It shall only be admitted when demanded by a majority of the members present, and its effect shall be to put an end to all debate, and to bring the House to a direct vote upon amendments, and then upon the main question. On a motion for the previous question, and prior to seconding the same, a call of the House shall be in order; but after a majority shall have seconded such motion, no call shall be in order prior to the decision of the main question.

27. Motions to lie on the table, to adjourn, and for the previous question, shall be decided without debate.

28. When a question is postponed indefinitely, it shall not be again acted upon during the session.

29. Any member may call for a division of the question, which shall be divided if it comprehends questions so distinct, that one being taken away, the rest may stand entire for the discussion of the House. A motion to strike out being lost, shall preclude neither amendment nor a motion to strike out and insert. A motion to strike out and insert shall be deemed indivisible.

30. Motions and reports may be committed at the pleasure of the House.

31. No motion or proposition on a subject different from that under consideration, shall be admitted under color of amendment.

32. When a motion shall have been once made and carried in the affirmative or negative, it shall be in order for any member, voting on the prevailing side, to move for the reconsideration thereof, on the same or succeeding day, and such motion shall take precedence of all other questions, except a motion to adjourn.

33. Petitions, memorials and other papers addressed to the House, shall be presented by the Speaker, or a member in his place; a brief statement of the contents thereof shall verbally be made by the introducer, and shall not be debated or decided on the day of their being first read, unless where the House shall direct otherwise, but shall lie on the table, to be taken up in the order they were read.

34. A proposition requesting information from the Governor, Secretary, or any other State officer, shall lie on the table one day, for consideration, unless otherwise ordered by unanimous consent of the House; and all such propositions shall be taken up for consideration in the order they were presented, immediately after the reports are called for from the Select Committees, and, when adopted, the Clerk shall cause the same to be delivered.

35. Any five members, if the Speaker be in the Chair, shall be authorized to compel the attendance of absent members.

36. Upon calls of the House, or in taking the yeas and nays on any question, the names of the members shall be called alphabetically.

37. No member shall absent himself from the services of the House without leave, unless he be sick, or unable to attend.

38. Upon the call of the House, the names of the members shall be called over by the Clerk, and the absentees noted, after which the names of the absentees shall again be called over, and the Sergeant-at-Arms shall be directed by the Speaker to compel their attendance.

39. No committee shall sit during the sitting of the House without special leave.

40. A majority of the members shall constitute a quorum, and upon demand of any two members, the yeas and nays shall be ordered.

41. The hour to which this House shall stand adjourned from day to day shall be at ten o'clock A. M., and two o'clock P. M., unless otherwise ordered by the House.

ON BILLS.

42. Every bill shall receive three several readings, but no bill shall have its second and third reading on the same day.

43. The first reading of the bill shall be for information; and if opposition be made to it, the question is: "Shall this bill be rejected?" If no opposition be made, or if the question to reject be negatived, the bill shall go to its second reading without a question.

44. Upon a second reading of a bill, the Speaker shall state that it is ready for commitment, amendment, or engrossment; and if committed, then the question shall be, whether to a Select or Standing Committee, or to a Committee of the Whole House. If to a Committee of the Whole House, the House shall determine on what day.

45. After a bill has been committed and reported back, it shall be considered on its second reading after the amendments of committee have been read.

46. After the commitment and the report thereof to the House, or at any time before its passage, a bill may be re-committed.

47. All bills ordered to be engrossed shall be executed in a fair round hand.

48. No amendment, unless by way of rider, shall be received to any bill on its third reading, and no debate shall be allowed on the same.

49. When a bill shall pass, it shall be certified by the Clerk, noting the day of its passage at the foot thereof.

50. No standing rule or order of the House shall be rescinded or changed, without one day's notice being given of the motion therefor, nor shall any rule be suspended except by a vote of at least two-thirds of the members present; nor shall the order of business as established by the rules of the House, be postponed or changed, except by a vote of at least two-thirds of the members present.

51. It shall be in order for the Committee on Enrolled Bills to report at any time.

52. No bill, memorial, or joint resolution, shall be printed unless ordered by the House, except as otherwise provided in Rule 62.

53. When any matter is referred to a standing committee by motion of any member, it shall be the duty of the chairman of such standing committee, to notify such member of the time of their sitting upon such matter so referred, and said member shall be permitted to confer with such committee during their consideration of such matter.

54. The rules of parliamentary practice shall govern the House in all cases where they are not inconsistent with the Standing Rules of this House and the Joint Rules of both Houses.

55. Joint resolutions shall not be required to be framed or treated as a bill, but shall be subject to the rules pertaining to ordinary and concurrent resolutions.

OF COMMITTEE OF THE WHOLE HOUSE.

56. In forming Committees of the Whole House, the Speaker shall leave his chair, and a Chairman to preside in Committee, shall be appointed by the Speaker.

57. Upon bills committed to the Committee of the Whole House, the bill shall be first read throughout by the Clerk or Chairman, and then again read or debated by clauses, leaving the preamble to be last considered. After report the bill shall be again subject to be debated and amended by clauses, before a question to engross it be taken.

58. All amendments made to an original motion in Committee shall be incorporated with a motion, and so reported.

59. All amendments made to a Report committed to a Committee of the Whole House shall be noted and reported as in the case of bills.

60. In filling up blanks in the Committee and in the House, the largest sum and longest time, and the highest number, shall be first put.

61. The Rules of the House shall be observed in Committee of the Whole House, so far as they are applicable.

62. Each Standing Committee shall have authority to order the printing of any bill of public importance referred to it, where the printing shall appear necessary to its proper consideration; and to order the printing of any such bill, with proposed amendments, when the same is directed to be reported to the House with a recommendation that it pass.

63. Seven members, or a majority, shall constitute a quorum of each standing committee.

64. When a committee is called the chairman of such committee shall be considered as having the floor until the next committee shall be called.

65. That when the House reaches the order of the "Introduction of Bills," that the roll be called and that each member shall introduce such bills as he may desire, and that the roll be called until the roll is completed.

66. No member or officer of the house shall be permitted to read newspaper within the bar of the House while the Journal is being read, nor shall any person be permitted to smoke on the floor of the House or in the galleries at any time.

67. No one shall be admitted to the floor of the House during its sessions, except members of the General Assembly and employes in performance of their duties, ex-members of the General Assembly and officers of the State Government, Capitol Commissioners, Judges and ex-Judges of the Supreme, District, and Circuit Courts, the families of members of the House, Trustees, Superintendents, and Officers of the State Institutions, on invitation of the member from the district in which the institution is located, and each member shall have the right to admit a friend who may be visiting him. Representatives of the press to be admitted to the reporter's galleries.

• JOINT RULES.

1. In every case of disagreement between the two Houses, if either House requests a conference, and appoints a committee for that purpose the other House shall appoint a committee to confer therewith upon the subject of their disagreement. They shall meet at a convenient time, to be agreed upon by their chairmen, and having conferred freely, each shall report to their respective house the result of their conference. In case of agreement, the report shall be first made, with the papers referred accompanying it, to the disagreeing House, and there acted upon; and such action shall be immediately reported by the Clerk to the other House, the papers referred accompanying the message. In case of disagreement, the papers shall remain with the House which referred them. The agreeing report of a Conference Committee shall be made, read, and signed in duplicate by all the members of the committee, or by a majority of those of each House, one of the duplicates being retained by the committee of each House. Should either House disagree to the report of the committee, such House shall appoint a second committee, and request a further conference, which shall be acceded to by the other House before adhering. The motion for a Committee of Conference, and the report of such committee, shall be in order at any time. When both houses shall have adhered to their disagreement a bill of resolution is lost.

2. When a message shall be sent from either House to the other, it shall be announced at the door of the House to which it is sent, by the door-keeper thereof, and shall be respectfully communicated to the Chair by the person by whom it is sent.

3. All messages between the two Houses shall be communicated by the Secretary or Chief Clerk, or their respective assistants.

4. When a bill shall have passed both houses, it shall be duly enrolled by the Enrolling Clerk of the House in which it originated, and the fact of its origin shall be certified by the endorsement of the Secretary or Clerk thereof.

5. When bills are enrolled they shall be examined by a Joint Committee of two from the Senate and two from the House of Representatives, who shall be a Standing Committee for that purpose, and who shall carefully compare the enrollment with the engrossed bills, as passed in the Houses, correct any errors therein, and make report thereof forthwith to their respective Houses.

6. After the report, each bill shall be signed, first by the Speaker of the House of Representatives, and then by the President of the Senate, in the presence of their respective Houses.

7. After the bill shall have been thus signed in each House, it shall be presented by said committee to the Governor for his approval, and they shall forthwith report the day of presentation, which shall be entered upon the journal of the House in which the bill originated.

8. All orders, resolutions, memorials, or other votes, which are to be presented to the Governor for his approval, shall be enrolled, examined, signed, and presented in the same manner as bills.

9. When any bill, joint resolution, or memorial which shall have passed in one House, is rejected in the other, notice of said rejection shall be given to the House which passed the same.

10. When a bill, resolution or memorial, which shall have passed one House is rejected in the other, it shall not be again introduced during the session without five days' notice, and leave of two-thirds of the members voting thereon.

11. Each House shall transmit to the other, with any bill, resolution, or memorial, all papers upon which the same shall be founded.

12. When any report, bill, or resolution shall be ordered printed, by either House, without stating the number, three hundred copies shall be printed for the use of both houses; but when any bill or resolution which may have passed one House, is ordered printed by the other, a greater number of copies shall not be printed than the House making the order shall determine.

13. It shall be the duty of the Chief Clerk of the House of Representatives, and the Secretary of the Senate, when any document, except bills and resolutions, is ordered to be printed in their respective Houses, forthwith to communicate such order to the other House.

14. In all elections in Joint Convention of the two Houses, the names of all the members shall be arranged in alphabetical order, and they shall be called upon to vote in the order in which they stand arranged.

15. That it shall be the duty of the Committee on Claims of each House to keep a book of record, in which shall be entered each claim for money against the State referred to them, whether presented in favor of private persons, or municipal or other corporations, entering therein the name of the claimant, the amount of the claim, and the grounds thereof, with a note of the evidence offered in support of the same, and the final conclusion of the committee thereon.

2d. At the close of the session, said book of record shall be deposited with the Auditor of State, to be kept by him ; and he shall provide an index, showing the names of the claimants recorded therein.

3d. At any subsequent session the same shall be delivered when desired to the like committee having jurisdiction of such claims, and shall always be open to the examination of the said Committee of either House.

The Executive Council.

BUREN R. SHERMAN, Governor.

FRANK D. JACKSON, Secretary of State.

VOLTAIRE P. TWOMBLY, Treasurer of State.

JONATHAN W. CATTELL, Acting Auditor of State.

The Governor, Auditor, Secretary and Treasurer of State, or any three of them, constitute the Executive Council.

The Executive Council (originally called the Census Board), have in charge under provisions of the Code, the preparation and direction of all matters relative to taking the census of the State.

They have charge, care, and custody of all property of the State, (where no other provision is made), and provide for the several officers entitled to receive the same, the necessary books, postage, furniture, fuel, etc., to enable such officers to promptly and efficiently perform the duties of their several departments; the accounts for all expenditures for above purposes, including repairs of State property, as well as all other necessary and lawful expenses not otherwise provided for, can only be audited and paid, upon the certificate of such Council.

On the first Monday of March, of each year, the Executive Council meet for the purpose of assessing railroad property, including right of way, bridges, culverts, rolling stock, depots, station grounds, shops, etc., as well as all other property, real and personal, exclusively used in the operation of such railways. In assessing a railway and its equipments, the Council must not only take into consideration its gross earnings per mile in the State, but also, the proportion of the business which that part lying within the State bears to the business of the remainder of the line without the State, preparing elaborate tables thereof, from which certified copies are sent out to each of the ninety-nine county auditors in the State, showing the amount of main track of each railway in his county, and the assessed value per mile of the same, as fixed by a pro rata distribution per mile, of the assessed value of the whole property.

The Executive Council also constitute the State Board of Equalization, meeting for that purpose on the first Monday in July of each year in which real property is assessed; at this meeting the abstracts transmitted by the county auditors are considered and the valuation of all real property among the several counties and towns is equalized, by adding to the aggregate valuation of each county which they shall believe to be valued below its proper valuation, or, they may deduct from the aggregate valuation in each county which they shall believe to be valued above the proper valuation, such percentage in each case, as they may deem adequate to place the assessed valuation on a proper basis.

The Executive Council also constitute a State Board of Canvassers, meeting for that purpose on the Thursday following the fourth Monday after election, at which time a canvass is made of the vote cast for State officers, (except Governor and Lieutenant-Governor), and such district officers as provided by law; no member of the Executive Council, however, shall take part in canvassing the votes for any office for which he is a candidate. Proper abstracts are carefully made as to the result of the canvass and signed by the Executive Council.

The above are but a few of the arduous duties devolving upon this, the most important of all the State Boards. Unceasing vigilance must be exercised at all times by them, that the State suffers no loss through mismanagement or otherwise, this too, in addition to the duties devolving upon them individually through the natural channels of their several State offices.

By an Act of the Seventh General Assembly, approved March 31, 1858, the Iowa Agricultural College and Farm was established and a Board of Trustees appointed, who, in July 1859, located the college near Ames, Story county.

The college farm consists of about 860 acres, including near 70 acres which is set apart for college grounds.

Tuition is free to pupils residents of the State six months previous to admission, and over sixteen years of age; each county is entitled to tuition for three pupils.

The Trustees, one from each Congressional District, are elected by the General Assembly, in joint convention, for six years, one-third being chosen at every regular session.

In the year 1854, the Iowa State Agricultural Society was organized, and in October of that year, held its first fair at Fairfield, and has not failed to hold its annual exhibitions since its organization.

For many years the annual fairs were held in different locations where most local aid or advantages was assured the society, but for the past few years the society has continued to hold its fair at Des Moines, and in 1885, that city having subscribed a local subsidy of $50,000, as additional to a similar amount appropriated by the Twentieth General Assembly in aid of the society, the fair was permanently located at the capitol city, and large and commodious grounds purchased on which to found a permanent home for the annual exhibitions.

The society holds its annual meetings in January, the meeting being composed of delegates from each local society in the State, at these meetings the officers are elected to serve for one year, and five directors to serve for two years.

The society, in compliance with law, publishes a report of its doings annually.

The Board of Dental Examiners originated with the Nineteenth General Assembly. The act for its establishment provides for the appointment by the Governor of a Board consisting of five practical dentists, each of five years standing in the State; their appointment shall be for a term of five years service. They shall hold their meetings at least once a year, or oftener if deemed necessary.

Dentists doing business in the State must register with this Board, and persons commencing the practice of dentistry who have not a diploma from some reputable dental college, must be examined and receive license from the Board.

The act provides for an annual report to the Governor of the doings of the Board.

By an act of the Eighteenth General Assembly (1880) $5,000 per annum, or so much thereof as necessary, was appropriated, with which to establish and maintain a State Board of Health; the object, duties, etc, being definitely set forth by the provisions of the act. In May of that year the Board, consisting of seven physicians, a civil engineer and the Attorney-General, was organized and entered upon its work.

The meetings of the Board occur in May and November of each year, at the office of the Secretary.

The Board issues a biennial report of its doings, together with such information as has been attained relative to the diseases peculiar to the people, as well as the live stock in general, of the State.

The members of the Board are appointed by the Governor, with the approval of the Executive Council, one each year, and hold their office for a term of seven years.

The secretary and assistant are elected by the Board.

The Twelfth General Assembly (1868) passed an act providing for the erection of a new capitol building, and at the following session an act which provided for the election by the Legislature of a board of nine capitol commissioners under whose direction and management the work should be carried forward, and on the 23d day of November, 1871, the corner stone was laid by them, Governor Merrill, president ex-officio of the board, officiating.

The Fourteenth General Assembly re-organized the board under the provisions of chapter 35 laws of 1872, and under the new regulations a new board was appointed which, with the exception of Mr. Fisher, who was succeeded by Mr. Foreman, and Mr. Piquenard, architect, succeeded by Messrs. Bell and Hackney, have been continued until the present time.

The capitol building was dedicated with appropriate ceremony January.17, 1884.

The College for the Blind is one of the oldest among the many State institutions, having been originally located at Iowa City, then capital of the State, in April 1853, where it remained until July 1862, at which time it was removed to its present location at Vinton, Benton county.

During the term of its existence it has received over five hundred pupils.

Ten thousand dollars per annum is appropriated as salaries of the officers and employes, besides $40 per quarter for each pupil, to meet general expenses.

The trustees are elected by the General Assembly for four years, three at each regular session.

The library consists of about 2,500 volumes, about one-half of which are of the embossed or raised letter pattern.

The building is very commodious and well adapted for the purpose; in construction it is about three hundred feet in length by sixty in width, and four stories high.

A competent oculist is employed.

COMMISSIONERS OF NEW HOSPITAL FOR INSANE—CLARINDA, PAGE COUNTY.

J. D. M. HAMILTON, Fort Madison.

E. J. HARTSHORN, Emmetsburg.

GEORGE B. VAN SAUN, Cedar Falls.

The Twentieth General Assembly (1884), appropriated $150,000 towards building an additional hospital for the insane. The act provides for the appointment of a Board of Commissioners consisting of three persons who shall as speedily as practicable after their appointment, determine the location of, and purchase a site for the erection of suitable buildings, in the southwestern part of the State, the site for such hospital to consist of not less than three hundred and twenty acres of land.

The Commissioners were empowered to procure and adopt plans, specifications, estimates, etc., for the erection of buildings upon the plan known as the "cottage plan," they to be substantially fire-proof and of brick. For the successful carrying out of said plans they were to employ a competent architect and superintendent of construction.

Clarinda, Page county, was selected as the location of such institution, and on July 4, 1885, the corner stone was laid for the building with proper ceremony.

Expenditures for fiscal term ending June 30, 1885, building and land, $81,876.08.

By election of Society, June 22, 1885.

The Sixth General Assembly by an act approved January 28, 1857, provided an appropriation of $250 to be expended in collecting, embodying, arranging and preserving in authentic form, charts, books, pamphlets, maps, manuscripts, papers, etc., relative to the history of Iowa, to secure from oblivion the memory of its pioneers, to obtain and preserve the stories of their exploits, perils and hardy adventures; to secure facts and statements relative to the history of our Indian tribes.

The Fourteenth General Assembly reorganized the Historical Society, raising the number of curators to eighteen, nine to be appointed by the Governor and the same number by the Society, to hold their office for a term of two years.

The Eighteenth General Assembly increased the annual appropriation to $1,000.

Annual meetings of the Society are held the last week in June.

The Society received its first annual appropriation of $800 from the State in 1868, which annual amount has since been increased to $1,000.

The object of the Society is the promotion and encouragement of horticulture and arboriculture in Iowa, by the collection and dissemination of practical information regarding the cultivation of such fruits, flowers and trees, as are best adapted to the soil and climate of the State.

The Society publishes lists of fruits as well as trees for timber or ornament, best suited to growth in this State.

In order to facilitate the work, the State is divided into twelve districts, each having its own director, and holding its own meetings, and it is the duty of the directors to report to the secretary of the society.

The society publishes an annual report full of interest and valuable papers.

The Fifth General Assembly by an act approved January 24, 1855, established the above named institution.

Edward Johnson and C. S. Blake were appointed a committee to locate and erect suitable buildings, accordingly work was commenced late in 1855, under the superintendence of Mr. Winslow, from plans furnished by Dr. Bell, of Boston. The buildings designed to accommodate three hundred patients, are constructed of cut stone and consist of a center building four stories high, with wings extending from its east and west sides, each three stories in height, the whole covering an area of 50,000 superficial feet.

January 24, 1855, the General Assembly appropriated for the purchase of grounds $4,425, also $40,000 for the buildings. The institution received small amounts from time to time from the Saline land fund.

The Twelfth General Assembly passed an act permanently establishing an additional institution for the care of the insane at Independence, Buchanan county, making for that purpose an appropriation with which to commence the work.

E. G. Morgan, Marturin L. Fisher and Albert Clark were appointed a commission to superintend the erection of suitable buildings; upon the death of Mr. Clark, a year later, George W. Bemis was appointed to fill the vacancy.

The bill required a donation of 320 acres of land which was soon provided and the buildings in process of erection under contract to David Armstrong, of Dubuque, according to plans submitted by S. B. Shipman, of Wisconsin.

The General Assembly by an act approved March 31, 1868, established the Iowa Reform School, a board of trustees was appointed and in September of that year the lease of suitable buildings at Salem, Henry county, was affected and the school opened for the reception of pupils.

The Fourteenth General Assembly made an appropriation for the erection of suitable buildings which were afterward located at Eldora, Hardin county.

In 1879 buildings and grounds were purchased at Mitchellville, Polk county, and a girl's department established.

The design of the institution is the reception and reformation of juvenile offenders of the law, by a systematic course of moral and physical training under such restraint as may be deemed necessary.

The Twentieth General Assembly changed the name from Reform School to that of State Industrial School.

The trustees are elected by the General Assembly, in joint convention, at each regular session, as their terms expire, and hold for six years.

The institution for the deaf and dumb was established at Iowa City by act of the Fifth General Assembly, approved January 24, 1855; a board of seven trustees were appointed, and Mr. W. E. Ijams made principal of the institution.

The Eleventh General Assembly in 1866 passed an act permanently locating the institution at Council Bluffs. At the next General Assembly a small appropriation was made to repair the leased buildings in which the school had found a lodgement, and a commission was appointed to locate a site for new buildings, and to superintend their erection. The commissioners accordingly selected about ninety acres near the south limits of the city and adopted a plan for the buildings. The main building and one lateral wing was completed in 1870, and immediately occupied by the school.

The trustees are elected by the General Assembly, one at each session, and hold office for a term of two years.

The Asylum for Feeble-Minded children was established by an act of the Sixth General Assembly, and Dr. W. E. Robertson, J. W. Cattell and A. J. Russell, constituted its first board of trustees. Dr. O. W. Archibald, of the Mount Pleasant Hospital for the Insane, took charge of the new institution as superintendent, in July, 1876. The buildings formerly occupied by a branch of the Soldiers' Orphan Home, at Glenwood, Mills county, having been refitted and the grounds put into proper condition by a judicious use of a very limited appropriation, from the State. The institution was formally opened and received its first pupils in the fall of 1876.

Children and youth, between the ages of five and eighteen, residents of the State, who, through deficient intellect, are unable to acquire an education in common schools, are entitled to receive proper training in this institution, free.

Trustees are elected by the General Assembly in joint convention, one at each regular session.

By act of the First Territorial Assembly approved January 25, 1839, the Governor was authorized to draw $20,000 which had been appropriated by Congress July 7, 1838, for public buildings in Iowa. The bill also directed the appointment of two directors who should, on certain conditions, locate and direct the building of a penitentiary at Fort Madison. J. S. David and John Claypool were appointed such directors and a tract of ten acres of land having been deeded to the State, Amos Ladd was appointed superintendent of buildings June 5, 1839, and a building with capacity for one hundred and thirty-eight convicts, and estimated cost of $55,900, was at once begun, and the main building and warden's house completed late in 1841.

Labor of the convicts is let out to contractors who pay the State a stipulated sum for services rendered, the State furnishing shops, tools, machinery, etc., and necessary supervision in preserving order.

The Fourteenth General Assembly (1872) appointed a board of commissioners to locate and superintend the erection of an additional penitentiary. The board met early in June of the same year, and selected a site consisting of fifteen acres donated by the citizens of Anamosa, Jones county.

Work on the building was commenced late in 1872, from plans furnished by L. W. Foster & Co., architects, and is a model of beauty and convenience. It is 434 feet front by 300 feet deep, embodying two cell wings containing 496 cells, each cell being four feet six inches by eight feet. There are several large work shops, warden's house, dining room, kitchen, laundry, etc., all laid up in a most substantial and workman-like manner from stone quarried near the spot, and the labor chiefly executed by convicts.

October 7, 1863, a number of prominent and patriotic citizens of the State met at Muscatine and organized a society, the object of which was to devise means for the support and education of orphan children of Iowa soldiers.

The society was organized by the election of a president, and one vice-president from each congressional district, a secretary and board of trustees.

At a meeting held in Davenport, 1864, it was decided to immediately lease a building, employ a steward, solicit donations of furniture, etc., and commence the reception of children; a committee with Mr. Howell, of Keokuk, as chairman was appointed, who leased a large building in VanBuren county and employed Mr. Fuller as steward.

On July 13, 1864, the institution was opened for the reception of children.

The Eleventh General Assembly (1866) assumed control of the institution, providing a special fund for its maintenance and otherwise provided for its management, and the institution was removed and permanently located at Davenport.

The trustees are elected by the General Assembly, in joint convention, at each regular session, and hold office for two years.

L. D. LEWELLEN, Mitchellville.....	1890

The Sixteenth General Assembly established at Cedar Falls a school for the special training of teachers for the common schools of the State.

It was provided that the board of trustees of the Soldiers' Orphan Home at that place should deliver over all buildings, grounds and personal property belonging to said home.

The trustees of the Normal School were authorized to make such improvements and change in said property as they may deem necessary to adapt the same for the use of said school. To meet the expense of such change, as well as salaries of teachers, contingent expenses, etc., an appropriation of $14,500 was made.

The management of the school is under the direction of a board of directors consisting of six members, no two of whom shall be from the same county.

The directors are elected by the General Assembly, in joint convention, and two members are elected at each regular session.

Students signing a declaration of intention to teach in Iowa, and that they purpose following teaching professionally, may receive instruction free.

The University is perhaps the oldest educational institution in Iowa, Congress having as early as 1840 authorized the setting aside and reserve from sale certain lands in the territory of Iowa for the use and support of a University within the said territory, this grant comprised over 46,000 acres, and the amount realized from the sale of these lands have largely increased by additional appropriations by the Legislature.

The First General Assembly took action in regard to the location of the University and a board of trustees was appointed. Nothing definite, however, was accomplished until 1855, when the institution was opened for the reception of pupils. In 1856 the University was reorganized and was by law permanently located at Iowa City, the old capitol building having been donated for its use.

In 1868 the law department was opened.

In 1870 the medical department was established.

The regents are elected by the General Assembly, in joint convention, for six years, one-third being elected at each regular session, one member to be chosen from each congressional district.
